DIAZ RESIGNATION SEEMS CERTAINTY

Cabinet Thinks President Will Retire as Soon as Order is Restored.

EXPECT ANNOUNCEMENT TODAY

Mexican Trouble Nearing an End—Three Hours' Conference Held. Vice President May Not Resign—Details.

Mexico City, May 5.—The resignation of President Diaz as president of Mexico, within a very short time is regarded here today as a certainty. Should the announcement of his intention to resign be made known tomorrow or even tonight, it would cause no surprise to members of his cabinet.

No authoritative confirmation of this could be obtained, but there appears little doubt that President Diaz recognizing the seriousness of the situation and responding to the popular demand, will retire when order is restored.

At the President's office today, no statement could be had and the members of the cabinet, realizing that he was the only man who could give a direct answer to the demands of Francisco I. Madero, Jr., the revolutionary leader, that Diaz should make known publicly his intention to retire, were silent.

At 1 o'clock today Minister of Foreign Affairs De LaBarra and Minister of Finance Limantour, were peremptorily summoned to the office of the President.

Following a three hours' conference statements were issued by the foreign office saying that the reception to the Chilean minister set for tomorrow and the banquet to the same official scheduled for tomorrow night, had been postponed until today at 12. The reason for this change of plans was given as "the slight illness of the President. The President's indisposition is known to be slight, but on orders from his physician he must remain indoors."

Since the statement was issued, Gen. Diaz is known to have been out automobiling. This morning he was apparently in his usual good health. This in connection with the fact that the conferenc was held, gives rise to the belief that the announcement of his intention to resign will not be made before tomorrow at the earliest.

In the event of his resignation there will be no opposition of the present officials to Senor De LaBarra's incumbency of the Presidential post pending new elections. The question of Vice President Corrall's resignation is not so simple. It is known that before leaving for Europe he refused to resign, and since arriving there he has reiterated this statement. But this is regarded as merely incidental. The officials consider the resignation of Diaz the only solution to the trouble.

In the capital today the celebration of the anniversary of the taking of Puebla by Ignacio Zaragoza was characterized by dullness. For the first time in many years the usual military parade was omitted because the nation's soldiers are otherwise occupied. President Diaz took almost no part in the civil functions.

Most of the business offices and mercantile houses were closed, and Sunday-like calm prevailed. Crowds of peons, who wandered idly about the streets furnished the only excitement. They gathered in front of the palace and although laughing and chatting, indulged in a few cries of viva Madero.

The police took no measures to disperse the crowd which filed into the garden of Zocalo, the big squares in front of the palace, or poured aimlessly in and out of the principal streets of the neighborhood. In Isabella La-Catolica street crowds banked themselves before a street car, stopped it and tore from it one of the little Mexican flags which adorned all the cars today. Still the police failed to interfere, and it was only when the mob seized a soldier, lifted him to his shoulders and marched off with him crying "viva Madero."

Mounted police rode into its midst. The crowd was not looking for trouble however, and drooped the soldier and fled. Nobody was injured.

Another crowd pushed down Cadena street and in passing the President's house let out a few shouts derogatory to the government and laudatory of Madero and the revolution. The police also dispersed this crowd, again, however, without anyone being hurt.

Railroad traffic continues demoralized. A train arriving today from the North brought a story of a hold-up by 500 rebels at Lulu, a station 90 miles south of Saltillo. The rebels searched the train, but did not molest in any way the passengers. From the express car they took some thousands of pesos, however. The rebels then held the passenger train until the arrival of a freight train, the box cars of which were loaded with rubber. This was unloaded and the rebels with their horses got into the box cars. The crew of the freight train was then told to get aboard the passenger train, which was permitted to proceed. It developed then that the rebels had their own train crew and even telegraph operators. They told the people on the passenger train that they were going North on a bridge burning expedition.

PEACE TRIBUTE TO CARNEGIE

Presentation of Medal by American Republics Significant Honor to Benefactor—Makes Another Donation.

Washington, May 5.—After receiving a gold medal by the 21 American Republics bearing the words, "The American Republics to Andrew Carnegie," and "Benefactor of humanity," Andrew Carnegie today announced he would give $100,000 in addition to nearly a million dollars already donated toward the erection of the Pan-American Union building, to be used for the artistic completion of its extensive grounds.

President Taft, Secretary of State Knox and hundreds of persons prominent in diplomatic and official circles paid honor to Mr. Carnegie here today when the medal was presented in the hall of the Pan-American Union building. John Barrett, director general of the Union, declared that never before in history had an individual been so honored by a group of nations. Senor de Zamacona, the Mexican ambassador, President Taft, Secretary Knox and Mr. Carnegie made addresses.

"We meet here today," said the President, "to take part in the ceremony of the presentation, by the Union of these Republics, of the Pan-American Gold Medal to the individual, foremost in the world in his energetic action for the promotion of peace. We are all glad to take part in it. The immediate cause was the presentation to that Union of this beautiful temple of peace."

Mr. Carnegie, in a speech accepting the medal, declared that the gift bestowed upon him was "an honor the like of which had never before been bestowed upon a human being."

THE WATKINS CASE.

Many New Affidavits Filed in Asheville Court Yesterday.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., May 5.—Affidavits concerning the alleged prejudice of Juror Arthur, in the case of F. C. Watkins, charged with killing John Hill Bunting, are being filed thick and fast. Besides that of Mr. Loomis, stating that Arthur had made prejudical statements to him a short time after the tragedy, the defendant Watkins today made an affidavit to the effect that E. C. Gardner, of Yancey county, told the defendant a few days ago that Arthur had told him a few days after the killing it "was the most diabolical murder ever committed in Buncombe county," and since the trial began Arthur's son told Gardner he was surprised the defendant had accepted his father on the jury as his father had recently expressed the opinion that Watkins was guilty. Arthur made an affidavit denying in substance the contents of both affidavits, admitting that he may have made some general statement to Loomis but not in the terms alleged by Loomis. He denies having such conversation with Gardner. The two only sons of Arthur make affidavits that they had no such conversation with Gardner as alleged by the affidavit of Watkins. Another affidavit made by Mr. Angelin, of Yancey, is to the effect that Gardner made the statement to him which was practically the same as alleged by Watkins that Gardner made to the defendant. Counsel for the defense are trying to reach Gardner to get an affidavit from him. Concerning the motion of the defense to have the verdict of manslaughter set aside, Judge Webb will probably make a decision Saturday.

BIG ELECTRICAL CONTRACT.

Charlotte, N. C., May 5.—The Chronicle this afternoon announces that contracts aggregating $300,000 were awarded to the Westinghouse Electrical Manufacturing Company by the building syndicate of the Piedmont. Traction Company and the Greenville, Spartanburg & Anderson Railway Company.

The contracts cover the entire electrical equipment for the lines under contract, including the transformers and other equipment for sub-stations, trolley wires, switchboards, etc. This equipment is for the line from Charlotte via Mt. Holly and Gostonia to King's Mountain, and for the line from Anderson via Greenville to Spartanburg, the former 48 miles in length and the latter approximately 90 miles.

The contract let today is the largest that has been let by the building syndicate since the contracts for the grading of the two lines. By the terms of the contract the equipment must be ready by the time the work on the lines has progressed for enough for the electrical equipment to be installed. As a matter of fact, some of the material will probably be delivered within a few weeks.

The past few days has been strenuous ones for the members of the interurban building syndicate. In addition to the several conferences that have been held with the representatives of the Westinghouse and other companies, Mr. W. S. Lee, Jr., Mr. James B. Duke, Mr. L. C. Harrison and others interested have made a trip to the southern terminus of the big system at Anderson and naturally many important details of the gigantic project have been considered.

IMPETUS IS GIVEN PEACE MOVEMENT

Achievement of the National Congress in Session at Baltimore.

CLARK SPEAKER AT BANQUET

Lent His Counsel for World-Wide Peace—Resolutions Passed by Delegates—Favor Arbitration Treaty.

Baltimore, May 5.—Resolutions crystalizing the sentiments which have inspired the sessions of the Third Peace Conference, and marking the development of the peace movement throughout th country, were adopted by the delegates to the Congress today. They contain a hearty endorsement of the Federal administration for its efforts in behalf of worldwide peace through the treaty of arbitration with Great Britain and for the establishment of the International Prize Court and of the International Court of Arbitral Justice. The suggestion made yesterday by James Spreyer, the New York banker, that nations shonid prevent as far as possible loans being raised by their subjects or citizens in order to enable foreign nations to carry on wars is favored and the United States government is requested to include this matter in the proposed programme of the Third Hague Conference.

This resolution was submitted by Isaac N. Zeligman, another leading banker of New York City.

The resolutions urge this government to enter upon negotiations with other powers looking towards the formation of a League of Peace planned simply to settle by amicable means all questions, of whatever nature, which may arise between the contracting powers.

A general arbitration treaty on the lines of the proposed treaty with Great Britain is favored as is also a continuous study of armaments by official commission of the various governments interested. The proposed celebration of 100 years of peace between the English-speaking nations is approved and the Congress pledges its support to the movement. Another resolution asks that Congress pass such acts as will make the ogevrnment hold each State responsible for any outrage committed upon the person or property of foreign subjects within the State.

The gratitude of the Congress is expressed to Andrew Carnegie and Edwin Ginn, of Boston, for their munificient contributions to the cause of peace.

Under the name of the American Peace Congress, the present body becomes a permanent institution meeting once in two years. This action was taken to meet the need for a central representative body which shall serve to co-ordinate the efforts of all the societies in America devoted to the settlemnt of international disputes by methods other than war.

Speaker Clark Toastmaster.

Speaker Champ Clark, of the National House of Representatives, in presiding as toastmaster at the banquet of the Peace Conference in Baltimore tonight, lent his counsel for world-wide peace. Mr. Clark said:

"It may be apropos for me to state that my voice is not for war, but for peace—peace consistent with National honor and with National safety.

"Good men and good women hail the peace movement as a harbinger not of the millenium, but for a better state of affairs than has existed on earth at any time since Cain slew Abel.

"We should lead resolutely and constantly in this movement. There is every reason why we should do so. With friendship for all nations and entangling alliances with none, with no desire to over-reach or encroach upon any nation, we can with no selfish motive, but with a sincere desire to promote the happiness and welfare of the whole human race, lead in this glorious undertaking."

AT W. & L. UNIVERSITY.

Phi Beta Kappa Society Was Installed Last Night.

Lexington, Va., May 5.—A Phi Beta Kappa Society was installed tonight in the chapel of Washington and Lee University with the presentation of the charter and an address by Dr. Edwin A. Grosvenor, of Amherst College, president of the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa. It was accepted by Dr. John H. Latane, of Washington & Lee, and Dr. James Lewis Howe, of Washington & Lee, recited the names of foundation members and rising graduates. Dr. Armistead C. Gordon, of Staunton, brought greetings from William & Mary chapter. About 40 foundation members were present including United States senators, judges, college presidents and professors.

PROBLEM FOR SUPREME COURT

Arises in Connection With "Cotton Pool" Case—Must Decide Whether It is Violation of Sherman Anti-Trust Law.

Washington, May 5.—Another puzzling question about the Sherman anti-trust law today made its appearance in the Supreme Court of the United States to plague that tribunal.

It was this: "Does a conspiracy to fix the price of a commodity by procuring a 'corner' constitute a violation of the Sherman anti-trust law?" The government rangs the importance of the question alongside that of the Standard Oil and Tobacco cases now awaiting decision by the Supreme Court.

This latest member of the "trust" problem family came to the court in a writ of error obtained by the government from the recent decision of Judge Noyes, of the New York Federal courts, in regard to the anti-trust law indictment against James A. Patten, Eugene C. Scales, Frank B. Hayne and William P. Brown. The New York court dismissed the counts in the indictment which charged a conspiracy to "corner" the cotton market. The indictment arose out of the "bull" campaign in cotton in 1910 on the New York Cotton Exchange. Some estimated that the alleged leaders of the campaign, Patten, Scales, Hayne, and Brown, made between $10,000,000 and $12,000,000. The case was docketed today as No. 1033, which means ordinarily that it will not be reached for argument and consideration by the court for nearly three years. Inasmuch as the appeal of the government was made under the criminal appeals act, the Department of Justice "must diligently prosecute" the appeal. Consequently preparations are being made to have the case advanced for hearing early next October.

The government's position in the case was stated by Judge Noyes to be "that any combination which interferes with the right of the manufacturer to purchase a commodity moving in interstate commerce at prices determined by the competitive law of normal market conditions directly restrains interstate commerce and violates the Federal anti-trust statute."

The lower court held that the government's position could not be maintained. Judge Noyes said that there was no direct relation between prices and interstate commerce and that the volume of shipments did not necessarily depend upon the lowness of prices.

FAILED TO PAY DUTY.

Copies of Famous Paintings Seized by Federal Officers.

New York, May 5.—After a trip from Los Angeles, Carlo Di Ploggio, who says he is an Italian count, was arrested here today charged with failing to declare for entrance into this country two copies of famous paintings by old masters. Had he obeyed the law the pictures would have been admitted free under the tariff clause relating to works of art. As it is, they were seized in Chicago.

Di Ploggio was indignant over his arrest and gave $3,500 bail for appearance in the Federal courts. Meanwhile, there is a Federal warrant out for Julius F. B. Frankenberg, first officer of the North German liner Prinzess Irene, who is under indictment, charged with engineering the scheme. The Italian says he was ignorant of the tariff laws and trusted Frankenberg to pay the duties.

According to customs appraisers, the pictures are copies of the "Holy Family," by Del Sarto, and the "Vision of St. Hubert," by Velasquez. They are valued by the appraisers at $500 and $100, respectively.

SEVEN MINERS ARE DEAD.

Score Entombed In Michigan — No Hope of Escape.

Negaunee, Mich., May 5.—Nearly a score out of a hundred miners in the & Steel Company, were cut off from escape early today and at least seven men are dead.

The bodies of four men were recovered by rescue parties, but three others are still in the mine. No hopes are entertained that they are alive.

All of the men were smothered by the smoke and gas from the fire. The loss will be heavy.

LOS ANGELES MEN APPEAR IN COURT

McNamara Brothers Arraigned on Charge of Dynamiting Times Building.

PLEAS WERE NOT ENTERED

Crowd Thronged Court Room Despite of Effort to Keep Proceedings Secret—McManigal Not Arraigned.

Los Angeles, May 5.—John J. McNamara, secretary of the International Bridge & Structural Iron Workers' Association, today was formally arraigned before Judge Walter Bordwell, of the Superior court, on charges of murder and dynamiting and his brother, James B. McNamara, was arraigned on a charge of murder, all in connection with the explosion which wrecked the Los Angeles Times building on October 1st, 1910, and killed 21 men.

Ortie E. McManigal, alleged to have made a confession implicating the McNamaras, was not arraigned. It is not expected that he will make any appearance in court until the trial begins. The day for the McNamara brothers to plead was fixed for June 1st.

Fully an hour before the time for the arraignment the court room was crowded, despite efforts of the officers to keep the proceedings secret. The McNamara brothers, with hands manacled, were brought into the court by Sheriff Hammel and three deputies.

Assistant District Attorney Ford read all the 19 indictments, charging the men with murder of employes of the Times plant. Accused with the brothers in the indictments were Wm. Caplan, alleged to have been an abettor of James B. McNamara in the explosion, and four others, one a woman, who were masked by the names of "John Doe," "Richard Roe," "John Stiles," and "Jane Doe."

The accusations were followed by a list of scores of witnesses examined by the grand jury in the weeks following the Times disaster and with the late addition of Ortie E. McManigal, who appeared before the inquisitorial body only yesterday.

Considering the importance of the case and the distance which it may be necessary to bring witnesses, Attorney Rapphort for the defense said: "I would like to have 30 days before the pleas are entered."

"If you are allowed an unusual time to enter the pleas," said Prosecutor Fredericks, "will you waive the provision of the statute which declares that the men must be tried within 60 days after they are arraigned?"

Rappahort signified his willingness and the district attorney said he would consent that the pleas be made on June 1st. Ford then read the other 18 indictments.

James B. McNamara was permitted to sit down and then an indictment was read, charging John J. McNamara, Ortie E. McManigal, "John Doe," John Stiles, "Richard Roe," and "Jane Doe" with dynamiting the Llewellyn Iron Works last Christmas. The time for McNamara to plead to that charge, also was fixed for June 1st.

Dr. Holmes' Statement.

Washington, May 5.—A telegram from San Francisco saying placards were being distributed throughout the State quoting Dr. Joseph A. Holmes, director of the Bureau of Mines, as declaring that the wreck of the Los Angeles Times plant was due to a gas explosion and not to dynamite, evoked quick response tonight. Director Holmes made the following statement:

"Neither the Bureau of Mines nor the directors of the bureau possesses any information that would demonstrate the cause of the explosion that wrecked the Times building in Los Angeles. The director of the Bureau of Mines has neither given out any opinion as to the cause of that explosion, nor has authorized any person to express an opinion for him on that subject."

CRITICISES UNCLE SAM.

For Failure to Enact Fishing Regulations—Canadian Parliament.

Ottawa, Ont., May 5.—"The United Staaes has committed a breach of international honor in failing during the last two sessions of Congress to enact the boundary waters fishery regulations, which, under treaty, they were in honor bound to adopt," declared J. D. Taylor, a conservative member from British Columbia in parliament today.

Mr. Taylor asserted that under the treaty the regulations drawn by the commissioners from Canada and the United States should go into effect without amendment. Canada, he added, had made concessions to remedy conditions in Puget sound, but the United States Senate had made several amendments of an important nature and had then failed to ratify the agreement. He declared that Canada should protest to the British ambassador at Washington.

Mr. Brodeur, minister of Marine, replied that the attention of the British ambassador, had been called to the matter. The miniter deprecated the "intemperate language" used by Mr. Taylor. He did not believe there was ground for a formal protest.

URGE PASSAGE OF FREE LIST

Washington, May 5.—Representative Warburton, of Washington, a newly elected Republican member of the House of Representatives, announced his intention of supporting the Democratic free list bill, in a speech in the House this afternoon. Mr. Warburton said many of the Republican criticisms of the bill were undoubtedly well founded, but others overdrawn. He believed the bill would not do all its Democratic sponsors expected of it, but it was a step in the right direction. He urged taking off the duty from sugar.

Speeches in favor of the free list bill were delivered by Representatives McHenry, of Pennsylvania; Ansberry, of Ohio; Hensley, of Missouri; McCoy, of New Jersey; Littlepage, of West Virginia; Dixon, of Indiana; Bartlett, of Georgia, and Clarke, of Florida. Speeches against the bill were made by Representative Waider, of Massachusetts; Farr, of Pennsylvania; Sloan, of Nebraska, and Smith, of Michigan.

Mr. Bartlett attacked the so-called "cotton bagging trust." He said there was evidence that manufacturers of jute bagging for baling cotton were operating through an understanding equivalent to a combination. Mr. Gillett, of Massachusetts, challenged the statement, and Mr. Bartlett cited testimony before the Ways and Means Committee in 1909. He declared the Southern farmers were discriminated against in that cotton bagging was dutiable, while binding twine was free of duty, and that Southern planters had paid $5,000,000 to the alleged "bagging trust" in five years.

LEWIS WEST DIES.

Noted Wilson Outlaw Electrocuted in State Penitentiary.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 5.—Completely overcome so that he had to be supported to the death-chair, Lewis West, the notorious Wilson outlaw was electrocuted at 10:30 this morning in the presence of the limited number of spectators that the law allows. Quite a number of them were officers and citizens of Wilson here to see the passing of this noted criminal who had given them so much trouble.

West wept copiously and in a last word that he was permitted to say declared that he held nothing against anyone and hoped to meet all in heaven. In a statement to his spiritual advisors, Rev. J. E. King and Rev. H. B. DeLancy, colored Episcopal ministers, he had made a signed statement in which he made it clear that the negro Stetson, who was given 30 years in the penitentiary as an accomplice, was really innocent of any part in the row that led up to the killing of Deputy Sheriff Munford, for which West was paying the death penalty. He stated that Stetson did none of the shooting and had no part in the store thefts for which the officers were attempting to arrest the company when Deputy Munford was killed. For the electrocution there was a single voltage of 1,800 that sufficed to bring death, although there was a second voltage given before he was taken from the chair. The killing of Deputy Sheriff Munford was on February 3rd, last, and there was a sensational search and pursuit of Lewis for more than a week before he was taken in Maxton where he had gone into a negro restaurant and pawned a revolver. He carried six others. The remains were shipped to Fayetteville.

ICE TRUST WITHDREW.

Monopoly Leaves New York — Proceedings Dismissed.

New York, May 5.—The $40,000,000 American Ice Company, a New Jersey corporation, which Charles W. Morse, the convict banker, organized in 1899, has withdrawn from the State of New York and all pending proceedings against the concern as a monopoly have been dismissed. This was announced almost simultaneously in New York and Albany late late tonight by the company and the State authorities, respectively.

Hereafter the New York end of the company's business will be conducted under the name of the Knickerbocker Ice Company, a domestic corporation, amenable to State regulations, although there will be no change in capitalization of either the American Ice Company, still existing as a New Jersey corporation, or in the American Ice Securities Company a holding company similarly incorporated.

Briefly, the so-called trust leaves New York, refrains from any action which might be construed as in restraint of trade and receives, so to speak a clean bill of health as the Knickerbocker Ice Company. In turn Attorney General Carmody withdraws the States' suit, which sought a perpetual injunction against the concerns operating in New York.

Nashville, Tenn., May 5.—The regular Democrats of the Senate and House, in caucus today, adopted a resolution declaring they would not treat with the fusion Democrats so long as they remained out of the State. It was further resolved to keep both houses in session so long as necessary to prevent the calling of an extra session. Efforts at compromise are still in progress.

WOODROW WILSON TELLS OF NEW ERA

FIRST SPEECH OF TOUR WEST

Says Initiative and Referendum Were Intended to Restore Representative Government—At Kansas City, Mo.

Kansas City, Mo., May 5.—Woodrow Wilson, governor of New Jersey, in a speech before the Knife and Fork Club tonight, declared that a new political era, promising much for the welfare of the nation, is now upon the American people. The movement is one of reform, marked by a process of restoration, rather that that of a revolution, he said.

The work of re-forming present conditions was confined to neither political party, the speaker said, both parties being well represented in the efforts at reform as well as in the obstructive tactics of reactionaries.

The Democratic party was so closely allied with the reactionary forces, "the interests," as was the Republican party, however, said the governor, and therefore the Democratic party was better able to serve the people in the process of restoration."

Great care should be taken in the selection of party leaders, the speaker urged. The processes of the present reform movement were fundamentally conservative. Therefore, excitement should be avoided and demagogues silenced.

The New Jersey executive said the initiative and referendum in the field of legislation and the recall, in the field of administration were intended to restore representative government. But the recall should not apply to judgs, who neither made no, administered the laws, but only interpreted them.

The presence of Governor Herbert S. Hadley, of Missouri, added interest to the occasion. Both State executives were referred to during the evening as prsidential possibilities in 1912.

Governor Wilson's speech tonight was the first to be delivered during his Western tour. He spent a busy day as the guest of local civic organizations.

Speech of Wilson.

Governor Wilson said in part: "There can be no mistaking the fact that we are now face to face with political changes which may have a very profound effect upon our political life. Those who do not understand the impending change are afraid of it. Those who do understand it know that it is not a process of revolution, but a process of restoration, rather, in which there is as much healing as hurt. There are strain and peril, no doubt, in every process of change, but the chief peril comes from undertaking it in the wrong temper. It lies in the method of some of those who promote it. It is a noteworthy circumstance that in proportion as the people of the country come to recognize what it is that renders them uneasy and what it is that is proposed by way of reformation they lose their fear and take on a certain irresistable enthusiasm.

"The American people are naturally a conservative people. They do not wish to touch the stable foundation of their life; they have a reverence for the rights of property and the rights of contract which is based upon a long experience in a free life in which they have been at liberty to acquire property as they pleased and bind themselves by such contracts as suited them. No other people have ever had such freedom in the establishment of personal relationships or property rights. They do not mean to lose this freedom or to impair any rights at all, but they do feel that a great many things in their economic life and in their political action are out of gear. They have been cheated by their own political machinery. They have been dominated by the very instrumentalities which they themselves created in the field of industrial action. The liberty of the individual is hampered and impaired. They desire, therefore, not a revolution, not a cutting loose from any part of their past, but a readjustment of the elments of their life, a reconsideration of what it is just to do and equitable to arrange in order that they may be indeed free, may indeed make their own choices and live their own life undominated, unafraid, unsuspicious, confident that they will be served by their public men and that the open processes of their government will bring to them justice and timely reform.

Conflict of Parties.

"What we are witnessing now is not so much a conflict of parties as a contest of ideals, a struggle between those who, because they do not understand what is happening, blindly hold on to what is and those who, because they do see the real questions of the present and of the future in a clear, revealing light, know that there must be sober change; know that progress, none the less active and de-

GWALTNEY AGAIN A WINNER

He and Allen, of Greenville, S. C., Will Play for Carolina Championship Today—The Tournament at Charleston, S. C.

Charleston, S. C., May 5.—The semi finals in all of the flights of the Carolina Golf Association tournament were played here today. In the championships the winners were Gwaltney, of Wilmington, and Allen, of Greenville. These men will play for the championship tomorrow.

A feature of today's play was a special handicap sweepstakes, Scott, of Charlotte, winning from a field of over 30 contestants.

In the team matches yesterday Charleston was first with a score of 340, Greenville second with 355, Charlotte third with 364 and Wilmington fourth with 366, the individual scores being Gwaltney 81, Taylor 88, Buckner 98, Gouverneur 90. Columbia was fifth with 390 and Georgetown sixth with 405.

Players were paired this morning as follows:

First flight, Gwaltney vs. Daingerfield, Taylor vs. Mayberry, Allen vs. Stokes, Bond vs. Kollock.

Second flight, T. A. Wilbur, Jr., vs. J. S. Cochran, Buckner vs. Haskell, Rivers vs. Jennings, Ancrum vs. Terry.

Third flight, Laxton vs. Cochran, Brooks vs. Dwight, Kinlch vs. Simons, Farr vs. Shand.

Fourth flight, Haskell vs. winner of Capers - Young match. Barnes vs. Crampton, Fraser vs. winner of Whaley-Sinkler match, Sirrine vs. Robertson.

The eight defeated in the first round of the first flight played the consolation match as follows today: H. Wilbur vs. Sherfessee, Patterson has a bye, Jervey vs. Tucker, Lockwood vs. Webb.

KAUFMAN WAS KNOCKED OUT.

Kansas City, Mo., May 5.—With a hard right swing to the jaw, Jim Flynn, of Pueblo, Colo., knocked out "Big Al." Kaufman, of San Francisco, in the tenth round of their fight here tonight.

Never before in his career had Kaufman suffered such punishment as he received today. Eight times Flynn floored him. Three times the giant Californian took the count of nine and after each knock down saved himself from immediate knockout by clinching his opponent and holding on.

When the knockout finally came, a minute before the fight was scheduled to end, Kaufman was a pitiable sight. Blood streamed from his left eye, closed in the third round, and his mouth. His face was a mass of bruises. Other than a badly swollen face, due to Kaufman's left jabs, Flynn apparently was unhurt.

The result was never in doubt after the second round. It seemed that Flynn would knock out "Big Al." in this round, but Kaufman had trained faithfully and displayed remarkable recuperative powers. Every knock down resulted from a right swing to the jaw, following a fusilade of rights and lefts to the head. Twice during the tenth round Kaufman was knocked through the ropes. Once the referee helped Kaufman back into the ring after the fighter had lain helpless for eight seconds.

Kaufman was out for fully five minutes after Flynn had been declared the winner.

Flynn weighed 171 pounds and Kaufman 205. Flynn received $1,750 and Kaufman $2,250.

BASEBALL THIS AFTERNOON.

Season Will be Formally Opened With Two Games at League Park.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the baseball season will be opened at League Park with a double-header between the four clubs representing the City Independent League. On Thursday an invitation was formally extended to the school children of the city to attend the opening games today as the guests of the Association and there will without doubt be a large crowd of the boys and girls from all the schools, both public and private in the city. The repairs to the grounds and grandstand have been completed and a caretaker has been employed to devote all his time to keeping the grounds in first-class condition.

At 3 o'clock the first game will be called between the A. C. L. boys and the W. L. I., the line-up being as follows:

A. C. L.		W. L. I.
King	c	Moore
Gerry	1b	Orrell
Emerson	2b	Rhodes
Houston	3b	Gore
H. Hines	ss	Delamar
Grainger	lf	Wright
M. Johnson	cf	Myers
J. Bergen	rf	Westbrook

Immediately after this game, or at 5 o'clock, the second game will be called between the Boys' Brigade and the Y. M. C. A., and they will present the following line-up:

Boys' Brigade		Y. M. C. A.
Greelish	3b	Bell
Thompson	c	Lewis
Mintz	p	Taylor,P.A.
Davis,C.W.	2b	Betts
Barnes	rf	Cashwell
Lacy	ss	Taylor,T.
Davis,L.L.	lf	Goldberg
Burnett	1b	Fillyaw
Davis,C.C.	cf	Shepherd

The rules and regulations governing the league are practically the same as used in professional ball, and it will be run on the same basis as if governed by the National Commission. The official scorer is Mr. T. F. Von Arsdale, who will keep the tabulated score, to be turned in to the official secretary every night. The official umpire will be Mr. F. E. Walker.

A glance over the line-up of the different teams will convince the most skeptical that there is a possibility for some real classy ball to be seen at League Park this Summer, even though it is called amateur baseball, as recognizable talent which has achieved note in semi-professional ball can be found on the roster of the league.

Convenient schedules will be in effect on the suburban line with ample accommodations for the crowds that are expected for the opening.

CAROLINA WINS.

Nine to One Score With Washington & Lee Yesterday Afternoon.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., May 5.—Carolina won from Washington & Lee this afternoon by the overwhelming score of nine to one. Lee, for the Tar Heels, and Moran, faced each other with perfect records, neither having lost a game of college ball. The visitors did not back their twirler well and he was also hit hard at times, Lee pitched excellent ball and received perfect support. Carolina's infield repeatedly executing brilliant plays. "The Best in the World"

As the bride led her friends into her cool, spotless kitchen, they broke into a chorus of approval.

"Well, I am proud of it," she said, "and proudest of all of my stove. It's a New Perfection Oil Cook-stove, and I think they are the best in the world. They toast, roast, broil and bake equally well—really to perfection—and the kitchen stays much cooler and cleaner than with any other range. This stove cuts my kitchen work almost in half."

There is no wood or coal to carry for a New Perfection; no ashes to clean up. It is ready for use as soon as lit; out at a touch of the fingers—economical as well as quick and convenient.

TRAVELERS MEET IN RALEIGH

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 5.—The North Carolina Division Travelers' Protective Association met here today in annual convention with J. J. Norman, Winston-Salem, president. There are 150 or more "knights of the grip" here and the meeting is proving one of special enjoyment and profit. The president's address felicited the association on the unanimity of purpose among the members to stand together for needed reforms in accommodations that are provided for commercial travelers. They had not attained all they had striven for, but much has been accomplished and more is in sight. The travelers were welcomed in fitting terms by Mayor James I. Johnson, who is himself a member and high official in the Association of traveling men. The response was in happy vein and to the point, was by Chas. F. Tomlinson, of High Point, who is National director. Soon after noon the travelers went in special cars to the State Fair Ground for the barbecue provided by the local post.

The Association selected Mt. Airy for the next session and the election of officers resulted:

President, Walter S. Dorr, Charlotte; vice presidents, J. M. Hill, Mt. Airy; Clem Wilder, Raleigh; N. L. Alcock, Rocky Mount; secretary and treasurer, C. C. McLean, Greensboro; executive committee, E. W. McNairy, Greensboro, chairman; R. N. Carrier, Greensboro; J. W. Murray, Greensboro; H. O. Miller, Charlotte; C. F. Tomlinson, High Point; D. C. Crutchfield, Winston-Salem. Chairman of Committees: Legislative, James I. Johnson; Railroads, R. C. Steele; Press, B. H. Burwell; Hotels, A. M. Spong, Charlotte; Employment, I. W. Cooper, Wilmington; Good Roads, J. J. Norman, Winston-Salem; State Surgeon, Dr. Chas. Robertson, Greensboro; Sick and Relief, J. S. Funchess, Wilmington; Attorney, C. T. Lee, Asheville; Chaplain, Rev. J. Vance Price, Mt. Airy.

Delegates to the National Convention: W. E. McNairy, D. C. Crutchfield, H. O. Miller, C. F. Tomlinson, Clem Wilder, J. G. Lee, D. L. Blue, J. T. Lassiter, W. L. Shepherd, J. J. Norman, E. C. Clinard, B. H. Marsh. Special press representative. Resolutions of respect for five deceased members were adopted, they are: W. J. Whitehurst, Wilmington; J. M. Burns, Asheville; Geo. E. Hunter, Raleigh; J. D. Terry, Winston-Salem; L. C. Levi, Rocky Mount. Asheville was endorsed for the 1912 National convention.

The Wake county Farmers' Union is moving for a farm life school to be established in Wake. To this end a special meeting is called for Raleigh May 13th, with a preliminary mass meeting in which people generally can participate. The movement is for a bond issue of $25,000 and provision of $2,500 annually for maintenance, this being required in order that the further allowance of $2,500 annually may be obtained from the State under the special act of the last Legislature.

The Piedmont Railway & Electric Co., Burlington, having one million dollars capital authorized, was chartered today with power to generate electric and other power, operate street railways and interurban lines and maintain theatres, parks and other pleasure resorts in addition to doing a general development business. The charter specifies especially the construction of electric lines to connect Burlington, Graham, Haw River, Hopedale, Carolina and Glencoe and operate anywhere in Guilford and Alamance counties within 50 miles of Burlington. J. M. Cook, Burlington, E. S. Parker, Jr., Graham, and A. L. Davis, Burlington, are the incorporators.

It is authoritatively learned that there is to be no announcement of the names of the six educators of the State who are to serve as members of the sub-text book commission until these gentlemen actually come to Raleigh to begin their work of examining the text books offered by the book concerns in competition for State adoption. They will not begin their work, either, until around June 1st, as they are all now busily engaged with their regular school work.

INDIGESTION.

An Interesting Statement.

Portland, Me.—"I suffered so long with indigestion and stomach trouble that I lost flesh rapidly—I had used all kinds of remedies without help. Vinol was recommended and I decided to try it.

"I soon commenced to feel better, my stomach trouble disappeared and I can eat heartily without the slightest distress. My experience leads me to believe that no other medicine equals Vinol for stomach troubles and indigestion. It tones up the stomach, increases the appetite and creates strength." W. E. Waterhouse. (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

Vinol seldom fails to strengthen and tone up the tired, overtaxed and weakened nerves of the digestive organs, and remove the cause of indigestion and soon enables the sufferer to digest with ease the foods that once caused distress. Moreover Vinol is delicious to the taste, contains no oil and does not upset weak stomachs, as do old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you, Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

THE PEARSALL FAMILY.

History of the Name, Some Traditions and Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Point, N. C., May 5.—Since there are many of the name Pearsall and their descendants in eastern North Carolina, I am asking the Star to publish some extracts from information received from England, New York and other points, bearing on the history of the name, and family traditions, etc.

The American tradition with regard to the family is that the first of the name was one Robert, who for his attachment to Robert de Stafford and the King's services was granted the estate Pearsall in Stafford county, England. The following memoranda from ship's log from Foster's Inn of Court Register, Vol. 2, p 6: "Robert of Kent, son and heir of Edmond or Edward Pearsall, sailed from London in the 2nd Va. Co. to Va., the year 1609." From Hotten's list of persons of quality, 1600-1700: "Passengers who passed from Yi port of London, 24th October, 1635, aboard the Constance, Clement, Capt., bound for Virginia: Hr. Thomas Pursell, of yeres 26."

Wooten's Baroutop gives a long account of the Pearsalls of Eccleshall, Staffordshire. The family took its name from the Lordship and seat of Peshall in the Parish of Eccleshall, Staffs Gilbert younger son of Richard Earl of Credulin Normandy, who accompanied Wm. the Conquerer into England, who married Isabell, sister and co-heir of Hugh de Loup or Lupus —the wolf's head or shield (coat of arms described later on), Earl of Chester and daughter of Richard, Count of Avaranchis in Normandy, who was of near kinship to William the Conquerer. Here follows the tree, too lengthy for reproduction. Anyway, we find Roberts, Hughs, Johns, Richards, Edwards and some other good old names like Hannah, Martha, Sarah, Elizabeth, Phoebe, Mary, Nancy, and Margaret. There was an Arabella, whom the Earl of Bredlabau married, and a Sir Boswell Humphrey, and others who were made Baronets. Several of the men were Knights.

Henry Pearsall settled at Hemstead, Long Island. He owned Oyster Bay, home of ex-President Roosevelt, and other large land properties, he having come from Stamford, Conn., and numerous descendants now being scattered in many States, numbers of whom were Quakers. Edward Pearsall, the forefather of the North Carolina set, was a High Churchman, settled in Virginia in 1596, was Warder in 1616. He was a kind of revenue collector for the Crown at Jamestown and his cousin Edmund, according to records from Westminster, on March 29th, 1615, was granted by the Crown the sole privilege of importing and appointing salesmen for all tobaccos, including "jam-o-the-fence" "Mahogany Twist, "Bull Durham" and other celebrated brands, to our English cousins at the rate of two shillings per pound. (about 50 cents).

Uncle Edmund piled up a right nice revenue for the king, 3,000 pounds the first year, 7,000 pounds each succeeding year. It took a "dead game" sport to smoke a clear Havana filler in those days, and the boys didn't smoke any cigarettes either. About "them times" the good women first took their dip o' snuff from gold and silver boxes.

Parliament, however, placed a proviso to discontinue its sale after six months if its use is found prejudicial to the State or Crown.

The fact of the matter was that tobacco revenue got to be such a great thing, ship loads of good looking girls were sent over by the King and traded off to the colonists for wives, for so many pounds of the evil weed. The prettier the girl the bigger the price, and from these unions came the first families of Virginia.

Finally Uncle Edmund, who was salting down a mighty nice batch of dough, thought he might do better to come over to America, so he came hiking over and landed in Newbern, drifted out to Duplin and raised a numerous family. The coat of arms will be given in a later chapter and a description of that immense estate that awaits claimants.

E. D. PEARSALL.

P. S.—Wives were cheaper then than now. Tobacco 10c a pound, a 150 pound girl only brought $15.00, dirt cheap for a pretty girl, buxom English lassies at that.

AT NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Weather Bureau to Help in the State. Good Roads Expert.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C., May 5.—At the request of Representative Pou, the Weather Bureau has agreed to notify the people along the Neuse river when the river is rising. There has been considerable loss to farmers of stock by floods in the lowlands. The government will take steps to give the people warning so that they can get their cattle out.

W. N. Hutt, State horticulturist, is here to study the pecan and to get the Weather Bureau to locate the thermal line in the fruit regions of the State. The frost-free sections should be marked, Mr. Hutt says, so that fruit growers may know what they are going into.

Superintendent Feirce, of the Good Roads Office, will send an expert engineer to Raleigh to make a survey of the road from the city to the fair grounds and in other ways help the Wake county commissioners build a model road.

Senator Simmons and Representative Doughton, the farmers of the North Carolina Congressional delegation, are opposed to the Canadian reciprocity agreement. This is remarked upon as interesting.

Do Ghosts Haunt Swamps?

No, never. It's foolish to fear a fancied evil, when there are real and deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marshes, bayous and lowlands. These are the malaria germs that cause ague, chills and fever, weakness, aches in the bones and muscles and may induce deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters destroys and casts out these vicious germs from the blood. "Three bottles drove all the malaria from my system," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had fine health ever since." Use this safe, sure remedy only, 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

WHITEVILLE AFFAIRS.

Effect of Cold on Berries—Visitor From Egypt—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., May 5.—The cold nights and morning are injuring strawberries to some extent, and the dry weather keeps them from blooming. But they are ripening very fast and pouring into the market. Berries are bringing fair prices and farmers are very well satisfied.

Next Monday will be a big day in Whiteville. Besides the preliminary hearing of the Crager murder case, Magistrate E. A. Maultsby has 14 cases to hear before his court.

Mr. James Gilliam, from Egypt, is now in Wananish, visiting his sister, Mrs. K. B. Council. Mr. Gilliam is a very interesting gentleman. He was born and reared in Bladen county, but a number of years ago went to Egypt to engage in the tobacco business. He met with wonderful success and is now a large holder of the British-American Tobacco Warehouse. He holds a very important and lucrative position with them. His friends are giving him a cordial welcome.

Mrs. J. G. Paterson has returned to her home in Thomasville, Ga., after a month's visit to relatives here.

Mrs. Walter Smith was recently summoned to the bedside of her father in Georgia, who was reported to be dangerously low. He has greatly improved and Mrs. Smith expects to return home.

Miss Custys Meredith, daughter of Mr. W. J. Meredith, of Wilmington, and the attractive sister of Mrs. T. S. Memory, has accepted a position as stenographer for the Whiteville Lumber Company here, and is boarding with her sister. We are delighted to have Miss Meredith with us.

Fair Bluff is getting ready for a big tobacco business this year. E. J. Davis & Sons, of Martinsville, Va., and Goss & Garrell, of Winston-Salem, will again be at Fair Bluff this season and will open their respective warehouses. Messrs. Rogers & Powell will also remain, as they have been for the past seasons and the Fair Bluff Board of Trade is firmly established. The tobacco season will open about July 1st. It is generally predicted that the crop will be short, but growers are expecting record-breaking prices. The Powell Warehouse was recently destroyed by fire but is being replaced by a modern brick building, and in the near future other buildings destroyed by fire at the same time will be replaced with handsome brick structures. No town in the State can boast of more enterprising business men and citizens than Fair Bluff.

ESCAPED FROM JAIL.

Prisoner Cut His Way Out of Washington, N. C., Jail.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, N. C., May 5.—Yesterday afternoon late Policeman George Morgan placed under arrest one John Lewis, a white man, hailing from Chocowinity, for being under the influence of whiskey. Failing to give bond for his appearance before the Recorder today, the officer placed him in the lock-up for safe-keeping.

Early this morning when the police stationed at the city hall made his round he found a hole cut through the lock-up, seemingly done with a pocket knife and the prisoner Lewis gone. The hole was about eight inches across and between 15 ano 18 inches long. The lock-up is celled inside and out with three-quarter inch plank but this did not keep Lewis from gaining his liberty. The feat was certainly a clever one from start to finish.

$3.50 Recipe for Weak Kidneys, Free

Relieves Urinary and Kidney Troubles, Backache, Straining, Swelling, Etc.

Wouldnt it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and the back-of-the-head aches; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency? I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $3.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to end it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: "Dr. A. E. Robinson, K-1351 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power.

It will quickly show its power once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free—you can use it and cure yourself at home.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC., Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 60 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Saturday, May 6, 1911.

A Louisiana syndicate has purchased 50,000 acres of land for $250,000, will improve it and offer it on good terms to settlers. That is the syndicate plan that gets the people. Florida has shown all of 'em how.

In order to keep up with the latest, we observe that a fashion note says the waist line is to be raised. We thought the waist line was giving satisfaction, but, of course, if it's in the way go right ahead and raise it.

Says the Washington Post: "A Jerseyman who ate pie twice a day for 89 years is dead." It seems, however, that at last he ate pie one time too many. This should be a warning to Bob Phillips, of the Greensboro News.

A contemporary suggests that the "Democrats had better look before they leap." Of course, Democrats will never do that, but in spite of the fact that we put our foot in it now and then, just see where we have got to by wading in and sloshing around.

We have always been exceedingly fond of May, but on account of some coldness on her part we do not think we can any longer stand for May, unless she begins to act more like herself than she has during the past week. We know now why a June bride prefers to be a June bride.

"Let us," says the Petersburg Index-Appeal "give everybody a square deal in this Senatorial fight." Of course, that's a splendid suggestion, but candidates are perfectly statisfied if they can win by some hook or crook. We don't know how those distinguished Virginia candidates are, but some politicians may not be any more anxious for a square deal than rome people are about "receiving justice." Justice sometime is what some men don't want. It might not be in their favor.

A marvelous story comes from East Orange, N. J., to the effect that Uncle Job Tilson, of that town, died recently at the age of 96 years, and that though having been born and reared only 15 miles from New York, almost in sight of the great American Metropolis, he had never seen it. You will see that Uncle Job surely was an indifferent citizen, but not any worse than many Wilmington people who can't see the possibilities of Wilmington although, her advantages are clearly in sight.

Our pals very frequently give us away. It is a good idea, therefore, to have no accomplish. In fact, it pays to avoid doing anything mean enough to make you afraid that some fellow who is in it will peach on you. Some men peach for notoriety and lots of them will peach for money. Indeed, some men would rather peach than to eat and will peach and impeach if they have to get you in a hole by the most pernicious prevarications. The moral is, be good and avoid men who will get you in trouble. Be upright and make a straight trail.

Terrell county, Georgia, raised enough corn last year to supply the home demand, and the Dawson News, in noting the fact, says: "Not a bushel of Western corn has been shipped to Dawson this year, a condition that has not existed in many years before." Suppose that were the condition in every county in the South? It would mean corn, money and prosperity at home. Why not go right on and bring about that condition? The News says the boys' corn clubs brought about that result in Terrell county, and certainly these clubs are great institutions.

WHAT IS A TOWN GOOD FOR?

What is a town good for, anyhow? Some men are "cut out" for lawyers, others for doctors, some for preachers, others for merchants, some for industrial captains, others for promoters, or for poets, as the case may be. Men ought to train up and fall into line according to their talents. Some men might make a good lawyer, but a mighty poor doctor, and so it is with men in all the avocations and employments in life. However, men often mistake their calling, but as a general proposition a man is likely to make more of a success at what he is fitted for or in the calling or work which he loves. When a man is stuck on his job he is on a fair road to success. Anyhow, whatever a man is good for that is what he ought to be. When a man finds out what his boy is good for he ought to turn heaven and earth to make the most out of the boy. We must develop the special talent which we have and then we are in the best way to accomplish something.

Towns have no talents but they are good for something—it may be little or much. There are very few towns that haven't got some emphatic advantages, some conspicuous opportunities or some splendid possibilities. A town's people ought to find out what these advantages, opportunities and possibilities are. They can make a study of them and thus learn to know their town. When people get acquainted with their town and get posted concerning its adaptabilities, there is pretty apt to be something doing. When, however, it is ascertained what a town or region is good for, that is what should be emphasized in its development. That is the line to work upon. That is what should be exploited, just as we develop our own talents or those of our boys. By the way, watch your boys and keep your eyes out for the fine points of your town.

What is Wilmington good for, anyway? and what is all this country around Wilmington most adapted to? We have found out, because we have butted into some of the advantages, opportunities and possibilities of this city and the region round about. Some of them have knocked us down but we get up and go right on paying attention to them. However, we must call a halt on ourselves and make a thorough study of Wilmington and eastern North Carolina. When we get educated on those points, we must go to work and develop along the lines of Wilmington's greatest capabilities. We must go right to work and exploit the adaptabilities of the immensely favored country in which it is our good fortune to live.

What is Wilmington good for? Well, for one thing, nature designed it for a great seaport and distributing point. That advantage has been made manifest. It has been tested and proven. The majestic Cape Fear river sweeps past the city of Wilmington and connects itself with the Atlantic ocean, thus affording the advantages of ocean transportation with all the world. The national government saw that advantage and improved upon it. Since 1870 the government has spent $4,765,000 in improving our river, harbor and bar, so that for that expenditure the port of Wilmington has done a commerce which amounts to about $1,000,000,000 from 1870 to 1909. In his admirable address at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce on Thursday, Mr. S. A. Thompson, field secretary of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, told us that this proves that for every dollar the government has spent, Wilmington has done a commerce of $280. If any one of us could invest money and get returns like that, we would make John D. Rockefeller, Andrew Carnegie and J. Pierpont Morgan look like 30 cents.

Well, the investment has paid the United States gvernment, the State of North Carolina and the port of Wilmington all that tremendous profit on an expenditure of less than one-half of one per cent. of the value of the commerce produced for the port. The government has been so well satisfied that it has gone on appropriating money for further improvements of the port's advantages and it is now working on a project that is rapidly developing into a 30-foot channel from Wilmington to the sea. The government still is improving our port advantages for us and it thinks it is as little as we can do to improve our harbor facilities so we can utilize our port advantages. These facilities must consist of whatever wharves, piers, and terminals we may have on our harbor. These are now inadequate and so the government has rightly served notice upon the ports that if they expect to ride a free horse any longer they must at least furnish the saddle. They must furnish harbor facilities in the way of docks, piers and terminals, else no more government money will be appropriated for waterway projects. The government will no longer sow for us if we do not do the reaping.

Wilmington has decided to get busy on that proposition. Since erperience and wisdom have taught that either the State or municipalities must control the harbors for the public good, Wilmington proposes to equip the harbor with the facilities necessary to handle our growing commerce. It will require $200,000 to do this, a most reasonable amount, rather too small we think, but it has to be provided by the public. Therefore, there will soon be submitted to the voters of Wilmington a proposition for a bond issue of $200,000 to be expended in the construction of harbor terminals. The last Legislature passed an act authorizing these terminals and the necessary bond issue. Wilmington will vote it! Wilmington will vote it because she has found out what she is good for, because it is an investment paying $280 on the $1 expended, and because Uncle Sam will wash his hands of this port unless we furnish the facilities for doing the business which he has thrown our way.

There isn't any use to say that "Wilmington must vote that $200,000," for there is no such word as "must" in progressive Wilmington's lexicon. It is a case of We Will Do It, and it will be done for the reason that we have seen what port facilities have done for Wilmington. The Champion compress and warehouse facilities of Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son, cotton exporters, furnish us a convincing object lesson as to what the best facilities will do. This cotton exporting plant is on the water front and railroad tracks run right alongside of it, so cotton coming by rail from as far south as Mississippi is unloaded direct into the huge warehouses, is compressed by the powerful compresses, and is loaded into steamships right at the compress docks to go thence to the principal ports of Europe. The result of these splendid facilities is that for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1910, the value of Wilmington's exports was $20,922,398, compared with $10,975,511 in 1900. The port business was practically doubled in the ten years. It pushes the 100 per cent. mark so closely that it is hardly necessary to pay any attention to the fraction, and that is what harbor facilities do. Those magnificent facilities of Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son account for the important fact that the exports of Wilmington are more than those of Norfolk, Newport News, Portsmouth and Charleston combined.

BRIDGE OVER CAPE FEAR.

We confess, without knowing anything of its practicability from an engineering point of view, to a liking for the suggestion in the last week's issue of the Southport News, that instead of a free ferry over the Cape Fear river, connecting Brunswick and New Hanover counties, that a draw bridge be installed and that the magnificent deep water front on the west side of the river be taken advantage of in any scheme of deep water terminals that may be decided upon by the city of Wilmington.

Business men here, with a knowledge of engineering, are of the opinion that such a bridge could be constructed for $100,000 and the interest and tax for a sinking fund on that amount of bonds for a reasonable number of years, it is thought, would not exceed the cost of maintaining yearly anything like an adequate ferriage system. Already business of large proportions is carried on across the river, water frontage is cheap, and with the large purchases recently by the railroad companies on the east side of the river, there is now little property available in the city proper. The deep water on the west side of the river makes the project even more attractive from the standpoint of economy. A bridge sufficient to accommodate vehicles, pedestrians and an extension of the "dummy" line could be thrown across the Cape Fear and provided with a modern draw and quick steam lift that would not be a hindrance to navigation. We understand that such bridges are maintained at ports elsewhere in the country and that they are being maintained very satisfactorily.

A ferry is at best a poor substitute for quick and heavy traffic and if there are no engineering problems or government inhibitions in the way, we believe that the suggestion of the Southport News is well worthy the most thoughtful consideration of those who are behind the movement to tear down the barrier that has so long impeded trade relations between the sister counties on the lower Cape Fear. Brunswick county is now developing to a surprising degree. It is well worth Wilmington's while to see that communication is made as easy and as speedy as possible.

BALTIMORE'S GOOD BEHAVIOR.

Baltimore seems to be a Democratic town in spite of all it can do to the coutrary. However, Baltimore is after the National Democratic convention next year and she couldn't afford to go Republican while there is no earthly excuse for Republicanism at this time.

We sometimes feel mighty sorry for the Republicans, but they brought it all on themselves by doing like they ... and would do again if they were given a little more rope. Of course, no town could boost itself if it were to go Republican in this progressive era, and as for Baltimore she didn't want it to get out that she was in any particular reactionary. Inasmuch as Baltimore has manifested such a spirit of progressiveness and is going right along on Democratic lines, it is hardly necessary to state that the Monumental City has a strong claim upon our consideration with her bid for the great convention which is to nominate a Democratic President. In fact, it will be perfectly agreeable to Woodrow Wilson to be nominated there, although, while he is now out West, he will cautiously avoid any appearance of picking out the city where a conspicuous honor is to be paid to him.

It should be stated that Baltimore is behaving beautifully in view of what is coming to her.

Because of the operations of the coffee trust in putting up the price, there is a proposition for consumers to boycott coffee—or what is sold for coffee.

Bryan still shaves his face clean and his latest pictures indicate a striking resemblance between him and the New Moon. However, the moon changes but Col. Bryan never changes. Why, he wouldn't even accept the loose change offered by Memphis if he would go around registering from that town rather than from out-of-the-way Lincoln, Nebraska.

The Times-Dispatch recites to what it strongly intimates is Richmond's discredit that, while Atlanta people spent sixty-two thousand dollars for three days of grand opera, the business men of Virginia's Captital City, only sixty-five thousand dollars towards building a railroad into the Northern Neck. The comparison is not altogether fairly drawn. Give Richmond a show to grand opera, see what it does and then tell the tale. IT'S UP TO YOU!

Will Wilmington Business Men Make Good?

It doesn't make any difference what your business may be, you need the Chamber of Commerce just as the Chamber of Commerce needs you! That's a well established fact. The Chamber of Commerce needs you, because it needs the co-operation of every intelligent individual in the city. An organization is a combination of units. The more unts, the greater the organization; the more successful its work; the broader its field, the greater its possibilities. You need the Chamber of Commerce, because, whatever business you may be in, you are dependent upon the prosperity of the public generally. You can assist the public to that properity by a little work, a little financial assistance, and your share of enthusiasm and intelligent boosting. The Chamber of Commerce has sent its "booster" abroad in the land, to tell your sister cities what we have done. We want to keep a "booster" on the job. We cant' do it without co-operation. We don't want merely to boost; we want to do the same high class of active work as in the past, but it must be done on broader lines; there must be more co-operation more general enthusiasm. The Membership Committee is meeting with success. The public is becoming alive to its opportunities. There is one great opportunity, however, that lies dormant at our doors. The issue must be met. Its success is assured; its necessity is unquestioned. We refer to the need for terminals.

Wilmington is authorized to issue $250,000 of bonds for the purchase and development of terminals. This is a requirement emanating from the government, and affecting vitally the further development of Wilmington as a port. The Chamber of Commerce has endorsed the necessity for these terminals; the requirement is small enough. Th State of New York is spending $108,000,000 for waterway development. Can Wilmington afford to let her opportunities for the wonderful development contingent on its citizens meeting a reasonable proposition halfway? Most assuredly not.

This is one of the things the Chamber of Commerce stands for, and it is the most important question before the people of Wilmington today. Had it not been for the activity of the Chamber of Commerce, the bond issue would never have reached Legislative sanction. The purchase and development of these terminals will mean the upbuilding of the city to a remarkable extent commerciaily. With the early completion of the Panama Canal, owing to her geographical location, Wilmington will handle a tremendous percentage of the commerce emanating from that source. She will need every possible facility for the rapid trans-shipment of this commerce. Without terminals, she can do nothing. Without organization, the terminals cannot be secured. Without the centralization of effort necessary for the work, the active co-operation of every member of the business world of Wilmington through the Chamber of Commerce, very little can be accomplished for the city's real good. The progress of the city means the individual progress of the citizen. Are you going to get in the game and do your share, Mr. Business Man? Or are you going to let somebody else shovel your coal for you? Don't you think you ought to help yourself to some of the work, if you are going to participate in the results? Send in your application now; don't wait for tomorrow; you might be dead tomorrow, and the Chamber of Commerce is no place for "dead ones."

WOMEN FOUND NOT GUILTY

First Jury Trial in the Recorder's Court—Indictments Charged a Common Nuisance—Twelve Defendants.

Yesterday morning in Recorder's Court a number of white women who reside in the vicinity of 12th and Chestnut streets, were tried upon the charge of common nuisance and all were found not guilty. All the indictments were returned by the grand jury at the last term of Superior Court. One unusual feature of the trial was that it was before a jury, the first in the history of the Recorder's Court.

In the absence of Recorder Furlong, the court was presided over by Acting Recorder George Harriss. The jury boxes had been arranged for some time and there was no hitch in this respect, but considerable difficulty was experienced in selecting a jury. Six of the women, Trixie Johnson, Louise Mebane, Nellie Berry, Phoebe Scott, Bessie Gibson and Nellie Russell, were tried at the same time and the consolidation gave them 24 peremptory challenges, while the State had only eleven. All of the State's challenges were exhausted, the challenging being done by Recorder Harriss in the absence of a prosecuting attorney. The jury as finally chosen was composed of Messrs. A. B. Boswell, W. G. Craig, Henderson Cole, R. H. Reville, J. P. Hopewell, L. M. LeGwin, J. B. Batson, Charles Southerland, E. P. H. Strunck, D. N. Chadwick, Jr., Julius Weil and J. W. Blake.

Several witnesses were examined but knew nothing definite about the houses and did not testify to any disorder about the same. No evidence was produced to show just what houses were occupied by the defendants. One witness for the State said he knew nothing of the houses but was worried a great deal late at night by automobiles going to and from down the street to the red light district and that it continued throughout the entire night. The witness resides on Princess street.

No evidence was put on by the defense and the attorneys appearing for the defense, Messrs. A. G. Ricaud, Walter P. Gafford and Hon. John D. Bellamy, took the position that the State had not made out a case and made short talks to the jury.

Recorder Harriss charged the jury as to the law bearing upon the offense of a nuisance and briefly reviewed the evidence. The jury was out but a very few minutes and found all of the women not guilty.

There were six other defendants charged with the same offense and the evidence was the same, but it was agreed to let these cases be governed by the verdict in the first six tried. Recorder Harriss would not allow the consolidation of all the cases as it would have given the defense 48 challenges.

COL. W. F. ROBERTSON.

Now Located in Charlotte, N. C.—General Contracting Business.

Some time ago mention was made of the fact that Col. Wm. F. Robertson, formerly of this city, but more recently of Chattanooga, Tenn., had decided to locate in Charlotte and would open business there on his own account. The Star is glad to note that Col. Robertson is now indeed as well as by intention again in the "Land of the Long Leaf Pine," having recently organized in Charlotte the Robertson Construction Co., with offices in the Realty Building, and for the purpose of doing general contracting in the South. Col. Robertson is also identified with the Southern Gasoline Engine Co., of Charlotte, which is manufacturing and placing on the market right from Charlotte an improved gasoline engine designed for all purposes, especially the needs of the farm and the small manufacturer. The engine is the only gasoline engine manufactured in the South and is placed with the best of them in competition. In a personal letter, Col. Robertson writing of his return to the State, says:

"Since I left the State, I have been in nine Southern States, spent considerable time in three of them. None of them can show real cause why they should equal North Carolina in growth, progress and prosperity. With the fine spirit of her people and the generous partiality of nature, the Old North State can pass them all."

MRS. BERTHA V. HOLDEN DEAD.

Passed Away Tuesday Night at Family Home at Supply, N. C.

Many hearts were made sad to learn of the death of Mrs. Bertha V. Holden, beloved wife of Mr. G. W. Holden, of Supply, N. C., which occurred Tuesday night at 11 o'clock after a brief illness of one day. Mrs. Holden was a lovely character and will be missed by a host of friends and relatives. Rev. A. W. Clemmons conducted the funeral and the interment was in the family burying ground near Supply, where a host of friends gathered to pay tribute to her memory.

Mrs. Holden was in the 29th year of her age and besides her husband is survived by three children, Miss Beulah and Masters Clyde and Rutherford Holden; also by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Holden, of Supply, and four devoted brothers, Messrs. Thomas A., Rufus D. and Emory T. Holden, of Supply, and G. Preston Holden, of Wilmington, all of whom have the tenderest sympathy of many friends in their sorrow, the last named being with the Brunswick Grocery Co., in this city. Mrs. Holden was a loving daughter, a kind sister, a devoted wife, a fond mother and a true Christian. She will be greatly missed in the community in which she resided.

BEST ATTENDANCE ON RECORD

Big Catholic Bazaar Closed Last Night—Magnificent Success in Every Respect—Prize Winners Announced.

With the largest attendance of the week and everything disposed of except the lumber used in the construction of the booths, the big Catholic Bazaar under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus came to a brilliant close last night shortly before midnight, the affair having been one of the most successful of its kind ever given in this city.

It was not alone the biggest crowd of the week, but the jolliest. As announced, the clearance of the decks began at 9 o'clock with an auction at every booth. Acting in the capacity of auctioneers Messrs. R. H. Grant, Waddell Watters, Ed Hines and Oscar Peck began their rounds promptly on time and with the great crowd in the building the bidding was lively and in every way satisfactory to the management. All the grand prizes were disposed of during the evening except the steel range, the handsome Japanese vases, the two silver services, the banquet lamp and the lavatory. The books for these were not all in and in justice to many out-of-town shareholders it was deemed best to postpone the awards until Monday night or perhaps tonight, due announcement of which will be made.

There was no curtailment of the programme last night and everything went with a whirl. The handsome building lot given by Messrs. D. R. Foster & Co., fell to the portion of Miss Edna Toomer, the same being valued at $300. Other prize awards last night and the evening before were as follows:

Rocking chair, Mr. F. W. Banks; table, Miss McEntee; lamp, Master Tom Strange; carving set, Dr. Thos. B. Carroll; table linen and napkins, Mr. Chas. N. Evans; drop light, Mrs. J. H. Niggel; imported cushion cover, Rev. Father C. Dennen; table spoons, Mrs. J. H. Watters; Berkshire pig, Mr. Siau; electric iron, Mr. William Powell; ton of coal, Mr. W. A. Peschau; silver tea spoons, Mr. D. M. Carroll; gas range, Mrs. A. B. Pleasants; People's Savings Bank Account, of $5, Mr. Hugh Hines; Southern National Bank Account of $5, Mr. Shoemaker; American National Bank Account of $5, Miss Mary Fitzgerald; Wilmington Savings & Trust Bank Account, Maj. D. O'Connor; Atlantic Trust & Banking Co., bank account, Mr. Jos. A. Price; refrigerator, Mr. H. E. Ortmann; andirons, Mr. W. W. Fitzhugh, of Watha; card table, Mr. Harry Hayden; Krex rug Father Felix, of Belmont. There were numerous awards from the booths, announcement of which with a full list of the donations by merchants and others will be given later.

The bazaar was a great success and much of this must be attributed to Mrs. Jos. H. Watters, general chairman of the ladies' committees, and Mr. H. T. Bauman, chairman of the gentlemen's committee. These and all the sub-committees worked like Trojans not duly during but for weeks before the bazaar and it is pleasing to know that something over $2,000 was realized for the benefit of the handsome new St. Thomas Catholic Church, soon to be dedicated in Wilmington.

COMMITTEE VERY ACTIVE.

About Thirty Applications for Membership in Chamber of Commerce.

The active campaign of the Membership Committee of the Chamber of Commerce recently has resulted in 30 applications for membership in the organization. Prior to the activities of this committee it will be recalled that the three classes of memberships in the Chamber were re-arranged so as to give more authority and privilege to members in the last class. The scheme has proven a success and the organization will be considerably strengthened. The committee will continue their efforts in order to make the Chamber a more representative factor in the up-building of the city.

The applications will be passed upon at a meeting of the Membership Committee within the next few days.

PEOPLE'S BUILDING AND LOAN

Fifth Annual Meeting Held Last Night at Offices of Secretary—Officers and Directors for Ensuing Year.

The fifth annual meeting of the People's Building & Loan Association, one of Wilmington's younges t but most progressive institutions, was held last night at the office of the secretary and treasurer, Mr. D. R. Foster, No. 206 Princess street. The meeting was held at 8:30 P. M., over 1,000 shares being represented in person and by proxy.

President W. E. Perdew made a very flattering report, showing a very satisfactory year's business in every respect and all the paper and securities gilt-edged in every respect. The secretary and treasurer reported loans to stockholders of over $90,000 with practically 3,000 shares now in force. The past year was the most successful since the organization of the association five years ago. The Association opens three series a year, the first of April, August and December and these find ready sale.

After a general discussion of the affairs of the Association directors for the ensuing year were re-elected as follows: W. E. Perdew, J. W. H. Fuchs, J. A. Springer, S. M. Boatwright, A. H. Harriss, Robert Scott, B. P. Bailey, E. P. H. Strunck, Anson Alligood, Woodus Kellum, William Struthers, Jr., J. M. Hall, R. A. Burnett, D. L. Latta and Owen Martindale.

After the adjournment of the stockholders, the directors met and re-elected Mr. W. E. Perdew, president; Mr. J. W. H. Fuchs, vice president; Woodus Kellum, Esq., attorney; Mr D. R. Foster, secretary and treasurer.

The outlook for the coming year is most encouraging and those present last night expressed satisfaction and gratification with the management of the Association during the past year.

BONEY VS. RAILROAD.

Digest of Supreme Court Opinion in Case From Duplin.

The following digest of the opinion of the Supreme Court in the case of Boney, from Duplin county, will be read with local interest:

"Boney vs. Railroad, Duplin county. Affirmed. Allen, J.

"1. Action and recovery of $10,000 for the negligent killing of plaintiff's intestate. Mr. Boney, as engineer of a train, ran into an open switch and into another train in Rocky Mount and was killed. His train was going about forty miles an hour. The regulations of the railway provided that his train should be under control and not over six miles an hour. An engineer was asked what would have been the damage if the train had been going at six miles an hour. Question excluded. Held, that the engineer had not qualified as an expert and could not given an opinion, except as an expert, unless he had seen the collision. Question properly excluded.

"2. To certain prayers that the trial judge instruct the jury that the plaintiff was guilty of contributory negligence in running over six miles an hour and not under control, the trial judge added the element of prixiimate cause and gave the prayers requested. Held, that there was no error in so modifying the instructions asked.

"3. The trial judge refused to give instructions requested that the plaintiff was guilty of contributory negligence in running past a switch unlighted, etc. Held, that there was no error in such refusal, as it was not alleged in the answers as contributory negligence, as the instructions omit the rule of the prudent man, as it was for the jury to say whether under the exercise of ordinary care he could have discovered that switch was at this point in the yards and unlighted, and as the element of proximate cause is omitted.

4. Held, that the motion to non-suit was properly denied. The open switch and collision raise a presumption of negligence. There was also evidence of negligence on the part of the plaintiff, and under these circumstances the case turned upon the question of proximate cause, and there was evidence to submit to the jury on this question.

WANTED AT CHADBOURN.

Charged With Securing Board With Intent to Defraud.

H. M. Deland, a white man, who is said to be in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line, was arrested yesterday upon two warrants from Chadbourn, in which he is charged with jumping his board bill with intent to defraud.

The warrants against Deland were received yesterday by Justice of the Peace Harriss and endorsed by him. One warrant was sworn out by M. V. Harrelson and charges the obtaining board to the amount of $10 with intent of defrauding the said Harrelson, and the other was taken out by Mrs. C. K. Hubbard and charges that board was secured and had not been paid amounting to $16.40. Both warrants were issued by E. T. Usher, a justice of the peace at Chadbourn.

Constable Savage arrested Deland yesterday morning at his home in this city. He is being held for the Chadbourn authorities. Immediately after the arrest the justice of the peace at Chadbourn was called up and he stated that an officer would be here today to carry Deland to Chadbourn for trial.

CITY GOVERNMENT CHANGES

Today at Noon All Affairs of City Will be Turned Over to New Council. Will Not Serve as Attorney.

Today at noon the councilmen of the city of Wilmington elected last Monday, will be sworn in and assume the duties of office and in doing so will take charge of every department of the city of Wilmington. Under the act the first regular meeting will be held Monday, at which time it is supposed that announcement will be made as to those who have been chosen for certain of the appointive positions to be filled.

Never before in the history of Wilmington has the city government been composed of such a small body of men. In 1739 the town of Newton was chartered and one year later it was changed to Wilmington and in that act seven commissioners were appointed to look after the affairs of the city until an election could be held when a similar number of commissioners were chosen.

With the passing years the charter was amended from time to time but never before have five men controlled absolutely the government of the municipality. Owing to the conditions prevailing here at the time, the Board of Audit and Finance was created in 1877 and from then until the present time that board has had the absolute control over all money paid out from the general fund. Four years ago the Water and Sewerage Commission and the Street Commission were created and two years later the Police and Fire Commission. The total membership of the different boards and commissions controlling the affairs of the city now number 29.

There is still much speculation as to who will be chosen for certain offices. It was definitely stated yesterday that Mr. Eugene Martin would not accept the position of city attorney. No other conference, it is understood, has been held and it is supposed that some decision will be reached today relative to this office. There appears to be practically no doubt about Mr. John J. Fowler's being elected chief of police but from what can be learned there is considerable doubt about Chief of Police Williams' being retained on the force, and it is said that Officer Chas. E. Burnett will be made captain. While report had it a few days ago that Mr. J. M. Woolard had been decided upon for superintendent of streets, it is known that friends of Capt. Oscar Grant have not given up hope of his securing the appointment.

The commission act provides that the councilmen immediately after organizing shall appoint three civil service commissioners and there was much talk on the streets yesterday as to who would be placed upon this commission. It seemed to be the general opinion that Alderman S. J. Ellis would be named as one of the three, but no other names were mentioned that were seriously regarded.

The various city officers are ready to turn over the affairs of their departments to the councilmen but it is not regarded as at all probable that any changes whatever will be made until some time next week.

PARENTS SADLY BEREAVED.

Infant Son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Sloan Passes Away—Funeral.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Sloan will tenderly sympathize with them in the death of their infant son, Robert Charles, Jr., aged nine months, which occurred last midnight at the home of the parents at Winter Park Gardens. The little one had been sick for several days with pneumonia and hopes were entertained almost to the last for its recovery, but everything possible in the way of tender nursing and the most skilled medical attention could not stay the hand of death and the soul took its flight at the hour named. Mr. and Mrs. Sloan were tenderly devoted to the child and having reached the most interesting stage of his life, it is indeed a very deep bereavement which they are called upon to bear. Even though at a late hour a number of friends of the family and relatives went to Winter Park last night to be with them in the hour of their sorrow.

The remains of the child were brought to the city this morning and taken to the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Green, on Orange street, whence the funeral will likely take place at an hour to be announced later.

OSLER RIGHT; YOUTH SUCCEEDS AGE

Osler isn't the only man who turns down old age. In the business world the "young man" is always the one who picks the plums. It is an age of "new thought," "new talent," etc., and the old man is passed by in the race.

One of the first signs of coming age is the appearance of gray hairs. When you see them, act promptly. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy will correct this sign, which so often deceives people into thinking that age is really upon them. It is a well-known fact that Sage and Sulphur will darken the hair. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur combines these old-time remedies with other agents, which remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

The manufacturers of this remedy authorize the druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and cold by all druggists. Special Agent: J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., Front and Grace streets.

MAYOR OF SANFORD.

Mr. J. W. Ruark Said to Be Youngest Mayor in the State.

It will be a matter of much interest to the friends of Mr. J. W. Ruark in this city and also in his native county of Brunswick, to know that a few days since he was elected mayor of the town of Sanford, the county seat of Lee and a place of about 4,000 inhabitants. Mr. Ruark is a brother of Mr. Robert Ruark, one of Wilmington's leading attorneys.

A special to the Charlotte Observer from Sanford relative to the recent mayoralty election says:

Mr. J. W. Ruark, who was elected mayor of Sanford today without opposition, is perhaps the youngest mayor in the State, being only 25 years old, a young lawyer of ability, who in the three years he has lived in our midst has won an enviable reputation and the results of today's election show the confidence and trust our people have put upon him. He was born in Southport, studied law at the University of North Carolina, receiving his license in February, 1907, came to Sanford in January, 1908, and for two years was associated with Mr. D. E. McIver in the practice of his profession, since which time he has been alone in the practice. He is attorney for the Banking Loan and Trust Company, and has a good law practice.

CITY LAUNDRY TO MOVE.

Will Occupy Handsome New Building Next Week—Request.

The City Laundry, on North Third street, will move into its new and handsome quarters on North Second street, next Thursday and when installed in the new quarters will have one of the most sanitary and up-to-date establishments of its kind in the South. Workmen are now busy getting everything in shape and new and improved machinery is being rapidly installed to supplement the already complete plant now in operation on Third street. Elsewhere in today's paper, Capt. J. O. Hinton, the manager, makes a request of patrons that will greatly assist if they will comply with the same. Patrons are requested to send in their packages by Tuesday, the 9th, as after that date until Monday following, it will be impossible to take in more work. The request is reasonable and the management of the laundry hopes the public will comply.

STRIKE NOW SPREADING.

More Pennsy Shopmen Walk Out—Rioting Yesterday.

Pittsburg, May 4.—The strike of the Pennsylvania Railroad shopmen on the Pittsburg division spread today to the Allegheny shops on the Fort Wayne division and the Verona shops of the Allegheny Valley division. At the former 340 men walked out and the company tonight asserted that 312 men were still at work. At the Verona shops where 497 men are on the pay roll, it is claimed more than 300 have joined the strikers.

One man was shot through the knee and two others were severely beaten tonight at Wallborough, which adjoins Pitcairn, when strikers, strike breakers and railroad detectives engaged in a fight during which more than a score of bullets were fired into a crowd in front of the Wall postoffice. The fight was started it is said, by strike breakers crowding a striker off a narrow board walk, and the strikers' sympathizers interfering.

Upon receiving the news of the shooting Sheriff Judd Bruff ordered all the saloons in Wall closed until the strike is settled. Pitcairn is no license town.

Philadelphia, May 4.—President Taft departed for Washington at 12:25 this morning, over the Pennsylvania Railroad.

HELD LAST MEETING FOR PRESENT YEAR.

The home science department of the North Carolina Sorosis were delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon by its retiring chairman, Mrs. H. B. Bates, at her home on South Second street. It was the last meeting of the club year and there was a full attendance, the guests of honor being the officers of the club.

Subject of the programme for the afternoon was "The Home Care of the Sick," and it was carried out in a most interesting manner under Mrs. J. T. Schonwald and Mrs. Johnson. An instrumetal and vocal solo was rendered by Miss Katie Foard.

At the instance of Mrs. Andrew J. Howell members of the department gave Mrs. Bates a rising vote of thanks for her great interest and efficient work as chairman. Mrs. W. H. Shepherd was elected chairman for the next year.

NATIONAL HORSE SHOW.

Ideal Weather on Second Day—Accidents Marred Showing.

Washington, May 5.—Ideal weather conditions greeted the second day's meeting of the National Horse Show, which brought together the best entries which have yet been shown. Two accidents, both to army officers, neither resulting seriously, marred the otherwise excellent showing of King Horse. Lieuts. Adna R. Chaffee, 15th U. S. Cavalry, and Gordon Johnston, also of the 15th Cavalry, were the unfortunate riders thrown and received slight cuts and bruises.

Among the winners of blue ribbons today were: Light Heart, owned by G. Basil Hall, of Middlebury, Va., in the class for polo ponies; Confidante, owned by Julian Morris, of Keswick, Va., in class of combination horses.

There is still talk about the leasing of the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio Railroad by the Chesapeake and Ohio concern. It is known that the building of a line from Dante, Va., to Elkhorn, West Virginia, is now actually under construction. This contract is most expensive for those who are backing it, and it means a great deal more than the building of the thirty miles of railroad through one of the most difficult countries in the South. There is not enough business at Dante or Elkhorn to justify the enterprise, nor as much business at Elkhorn or Dante as would make thirty miles of railroad built at probably an average expense of probably $90,000 the mile, worth while. We do not think that there is any doubt that the Chesapeake and Ohio concern will finally absorb the Clinchfield and Ohio road, because the road could be used by the Cresapeake and Ohio in its business to good advantage. The Clinchfield coal reaches contain millions of tons of the most valuable coal in the country, and there must be a market for it, and there is now a ready-made market for it in the Carolinas and Georgia. Besides, there is to be an enormous development of our commercial possibilities with Panama and the South American countries through the port of Charleston. It is known that the authorities have been figuring on this combination for some time, and we have no doubt that they will figure in the way that most people think. The Chesapeake and Ohio Company do not lose many tricks.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

New York, May 4.—With tonight's session of the Hoe library auction, the total of receipts about brought up to within $45,000 of an even million dollars. The auction will end tomorrow. STATE PRIZES AWARDED.

Six Prizes of $5 Each Given for Essays on Health.

Raleigh, N. C., May 5.—Six North Carolina school children will have glad hearts this week when they receive one of the $5 prizes for the best essay on one of the following subjects: General Sanitation, Hookworm Disease and Tuberculosis. Two prizes were offered for the best essay on each of the subjects, one prize to go for the best essay by a child under fifteen years of age, the other for the best essay by a child over fourteen years of age. The committee awarded the prizes as follows:

General Sanitation.

Under 15 years of age, Angus Travis, Weldon, N. C., age 12.

Over 14 years of age, Rozena Penyman, Postoffice address not known.

Hookworm Disease.

Under 15 years of age, Sarah Richardson, Postoffice address not known, age 14.

Over 14 years of age, Oliver Rand, Smithfield, N. C., age 15.

Tubreculosis.

Under 15 years of age, Edith Farmer, Raleigh, N. C., age 11.

Over 14 years of age, Inez Grace Wilkes, Chadbourn, N. C., age 16.

These prizes were offered by the Health Department of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, through the activity of Mrs. W. N. Hutt, chairman of the Health Department, Raleigh, N. C. It is hoped to have another set of prizes offered for similar work next school term that the school children will do well to acquaint themselves with health matters. The State Board of Health sends out free literature on request.

Mrs. Hutt will appreciate knowing the address of Sarah Richardson, or Rosena Penyman.

AFFAIRS AT A. & M.

German Club Erects Affairs—Baseball Record for Season.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., May 5.—The entire college community sympathizes deeply with Prof. C. L. Mann and Mrs. Mann in the death of their eight-months old son yesterday morning.

The Senior class of A. & M. and the Senior class of Wake Forest were entertained Tuesday evening by the Senior class of Meredith College at a moonlight promenade.

The Thalarian German Club has elected the following officers for the next year: President, Fred D. Poisson; vice president, Harry Hartsell; secretary and treasurer, N. S. Lachicotte; floor manager, Graham H. Anthony; leader, C. A. Stedman.

The baseball game scheduled to be played with Maryville College, of Tennessee, on the local grounds next Saturday has been cancelled by the Tennesseeans. This leaves only two more games on the schedule, Washington & Lee, Monday, and Virginia Christian College, Wednesday, both games to be played on the local grounds.

A. & M.'s baseball record so far this season is an enviable one, the Red and White ball players having played 21 games and won 1 of them, giving them a per cent. to date of 57. The game Monday with Washington & Lee promises to be the hardest proposition A. & M. has had to tackle this season. Moran, one of the very best of college pitchers in the South, will in all probability be opposed by Robertson, the A. & M. southpaw, who is fast making a name for himself in college ball.

HOTEL FOR DURHAM.

Five-Story Structure at Main and Roxboro Streets—Cost.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Durham, N. C., May 5.—For a long time the people of this city have been talking of erecting a new modern hotel, one that will fill the needs of a city th size of Durham. In all probability tomorrow's sun will arise with every dollar raised. The new hotel will cost when completed $135,000, and will have all the modern conveniences. The site is corner of Main and Roxboro streets, just opposite Durham's splendid Y. M. C. A. building. Mr. J. R. Paschall, of Richmond, will be the chief subscriber and stockholder, he giving $45,000. Citizens and institutions of Durham will furnish the remainder of the funds with which to carry on the work. The lot is 100 by 136 feet, and the building will be five stories high, contain 100 rooms, and be built of brick and stone.

THE CHOCOLATE SOLDIER

Wilmington's theatrical season, which in every way has been the most brilliant in its history, will be brought to a close today. To "ring down" the curtain on the present season comes the superb, massive and much-talked of "Chocolate Soldier." The huge company, with a tremendous amount of stage settings, will reach Wilmington this morning, coming on a special train, and the large force of stage hands will have ample time to get the immense quantity of scenery in place for the first performance this afternoon.

The matinee today will be an especially strong atraction and already there is a large sale of seats. However, there are many good seats left and can be purchased at Plummer's. The matinee will offer an extra strong inducement to those who will be unable to attend tonight. There will also be scores of out-of-the-city folks, who have already reserved seats and who will return home late this afternoon, after the performance. The scale of prices for the matinee ranges only to $1.50. The curtain will rise at 3 o'clock.

The sale of seats for tonight is gigantic, and for this evening's performance the curtain will not go up until 8:45 o'clock. This is done partly because of the inopportune time and because the audience is going to be such a giant one in size that it is desired to have everyone seated when the performance commences.

The company will include all the original principals and the Whitney Grand Opera Orchestra. This orchestra alone numbers twenty-odd pieces, and yesterday the front rows of seats in the parquet of the Academy had to be removed to make room for this large organization.

Grand Theatre.

For the closing day of a most successful week, the Grand management offers a programme full of real novelties with an excellent musical programme by that "Grand" orchestra and a new rag song by the ever popular "Baldy". Among the pictures will be found fun, pathos, and beautiful scenery and the fact that the pictures are all new subjects presented with modern machinery makes the bill doubly interesting. The orchestra last night fairly set folks wild with their rendition of Southern melodies and for today this "dandy" bunch will play a special number, "The Bronco Buster." Mr. Baldwin will sing Henry Von Tilzer's greatest rag song, "I Love It." This number has an irresistible raggy swing to it and will be a fine Saturday number. One of the greatest Kalem offerings made will be on today's bill, the title of which is "The Fiddler's Requiem." Two other feature films will make up the offering which will be hard to excell.

Joyland.

The programme today will be a feature from start to finish, and will embrace some of the best and latest pictures on the market. Mr. Reilly will sing by special request "Calvary." Most everyone knows this beautiful sacred song and Mr. Reilly can handle it very well indeed. Accompaniment will be played on the organ recently installed at Joyland which will produce a very pretty effect.

At the Bijou.

Another big Saturday will be this one at the Bijou. The management has prepared a fine and steaming portion of films and some of the brightest and merriest of music for Bijou lovers, whose name is legion, and so the week-end will be a glorious one. Today's moving picture bill will present the very latest films, both in the comedy and dramatic lines, and there will also be fine pictures of interesting travels and some of manufacturing industries. All-in-all and separately it will be a great bill, and folks who go down street Saturday nights will miss a big chunk of pleasure if they return to their homes without seeing today's Bijou bill. Of course, the matinee performances this afternoon, and the Bijou presents the same big show in the afternoon as it does at night, will be crowded, because the Bijou is a favorite place of amusement with the ladies and children.

Crystal Palace Theatre.

The new pictures at the Palace today are "The Woman Who Dared" and "The Old Man and Jim." These are especially good features of motography, varying from pretty pastoral scenes to the most thrilling climaxes of silent drama. The act of Follete and Wicks has proven this week to be one of the best vaudeville sketches seen here this sason, winning hearty applause at every performance, introducing burlesque melo-drama, singing and dancing, and that of the Klein Sisters has been a dancing specialty with songs interspersed such as is seldom obtainable. Today closes the engagement of both these teams, performing at 3:30, 4:30 and 7:30 to 11.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 4.—The Continental Coal Corporation, a $6,000,000 coal company merger was formed here today. The project is financed by Chattanooga and Louisville men.

The properties are centered around Pineville, Ky., comprising thirty thousand acres of coal lands.

PROGRESSIVE NEWBERN.

Five Miles of Paved Brick Streets—Hen Curiosity—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Newbern, N. C., May 5.—The Augusta Brick and Paving Co., which has the contract for $50,000 of brick street paving, has begun on Pollock street and now has the street from Hancock to McCarthy's store graded and the brick in readiness for laying. The firm is to pave about 12 blocks of street which when completed will give Newbern between four and five miles of brick paved streets.

The "Farm Life School" proposition which was voted on Tuesday of this week carried by a good majority. The vote was canvassed, being 943 for the school out of a registered vote of 1,724. The contest over the location of the school has already begun and Dover, Vanceboro and other places are preparing to bid for the school.

Daniel G. Moseley, colored, living on upper Broad street in the rear of Gassett's store, has a freak hen which is attracting much attention. The hen is about six years old, has been an ordinary hen, yellow in color until yesterday when a live chick fell from an opening in the neck. Moseley was in the yard and saw the chick fall, examined it and examined the hen. Last night the hen was examined by a number of doctors who had no explanation. There are three or more live chicks in pouch-like sack on the hen's neck and one under the wing. The hen is well, eats well and except for the pouch-like sack is not abnormal in appearance. Your correspondent examined the hen this afternoon with quite a number of others and saw one of the chicks still in the pouch. The chick is well developed but only lived a short time. Moseley has the hen in a coop and is charging an admission to visitors.

Until a year ago the hen laid regularly but for the past year she has not laid an egg. Moseley thought nothing of it until he saw the chicken fall from the hen on yesterday, when he examined her and found her condition. The chick lived about 20 minutes and Moseley has it in alcohol.

The Foreign Missionary Society of the North Carolina Conference will meet in annual session in Newbern on May 9th and 10th, in Centenary chuch. About 100 delegates are expected and arrangements have been made for their entrtainment while in the city.

The Neuse-Trent Traction Co., which has a franchise for a line of street cars in Newbern, has designated to the Board of Aldermen what streets it wishes to use and now has a gang of men working on the extension of Pollock street. From present indications Newbern in the near future will have a street car system, at least the prospects are better than ever before. It is understood that the company will use the Edison storage battery car, one of which was recently placed in service at Concord.

HER LOOKS A SURPRISE

Says Mrs. Albert Root — to Her Friends—As a Result of Taking Cardui, The Woman's Tonic.

Amanda, Ohio.—"I was hardly ever without a headache, and often had a misery in my back and sides," writes Mrs. Albert Root, of this place.

"I was sick in bed one-half of my time, and suffered a great deal from neuralgia of the stomach.

"Since taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, I have gained 10 pounds and now I can do all of my own housework and washing and my friends say I look like a different person.

"Before I began using Cardui, the doctor said I would have to have an operation, but I would not hear of it and commenced using Cardui, which has helped me wonderfully."

Weak, delicate ladies need Cardui to bring roses into their pale cheeks and snap into their weary frames.

No other tonic or medicine can take the place of Cardui, because the principal ingredients are imported direct from Europe where they are grown and gathered especially for us.

Cardui can only be bought at the drug store in original Cardui bottles. Accept no substitutes, as the genuine Cardui is the woman's tonic about which you have always heard.

Ask your druggist.

The sugestion of uniformity in the observance of Confederate Memorial Day seems very good. The Northern States observe their Decoration Day all at the same time, on May 30, but the Southern States scatter their days of special memorial services for the soldiers over more than a month, running from April 26 to May 30. Four States observe April 26, including Georgia, and one, Virginia, observes May 30, the others coming in between. It seems that a common date would be quite fit and proper. Under that arrangement the whole South, on a fixed day, would suspend activities and pay its tribute to its departed heroes.—Savannah News.

DON'T EXPERIMENT

You Will Make No Mistake If You Follow This Wilmington Citizen's Advice.

Never neglect your kidneys.

If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and no time to experiment. These are all symptoms of kidney trouble, and you should seek a remedy which is known to act on the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. No need to experiment. It has helped many people in Wilmington. Follow the advice of a Wilmington citizen and be benefitted yourself.

Capt. A. M. Wilson, 402 S. Fifth St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am pleased to confirm my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. I use this remedy occasionally and it always brings the best of results. I had lumbago and lameness in my loins and plasters and liniments did not help me to any extent. I heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I finally got a box at Bellamy's Drug Store and began their use. They cured me and all the aches and pains caused by my kidneys disappeared. I shall never fail to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills when I have an opportunity."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ACTIVITY IN COTTON MARKET

Renewal of Recent Selling Movement Feature Yesterday—Closed Steady at Advance of 7 to 12 Points—The Market.

New York, May 5. — Favorable weather reports caused a renewal of the recent selling movement at the opening of the cotton market this morning, but prices soon rallied, owing to more aggressive bull support of old crop positions, and the market was firm in the later trading on more bullish week-end figures than expected, with the close steady at the advance of 7@12 points.

The opening was steady, at an advance of 1@3 points, on old crop months, which were influenced by better cables than due, while the new crop was 1 to 3 points lower in response to the favorable weather map. Selling was rather heavy at the start, and during the first few minutes active positions generally sold four to five points under the closing figures of last night.

At 15.17 for July, or a point above the low level of yesterday, leading bull brokers became large buyers and while the official weather forecasts were considered favorable, to a new crop shorts became nervous enough to cover. Smaller sight figures than expected and the bullish weekly Liverpool statement stimulated the demand and following the publication of the visible supply figures, which indicated large spinners' takings for the week, July contracts sold up to 15.40 or 19 points above the closing price of yesterday, and within two points of the recent high record. October rallied to 13.01, or about 16 points from the early low level, and last prices were within a point or two of the best.

Reports of higher Southern spot markets, in connection with the bullish weekly statistics undoubtedly helped the old-crop positions and while the official forecast was for clear and warmer weather, private predictions were for unsettled conditions in the Western belt over Sunday. The advance in the old crop positions seemed to be chiefly the result of a scare on the part of recent sellers whose offerings had been largely absorbed by trade interests and who found comparatively little cotton for sale, when they started to recover.

Receipts of cotton today, 11,221 bales, against 8,203 last week, and 7,303 last year. For the week, 65,000, against 45,001 last week, and 54,672 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 2,334, against 848, last year, and at Houston, 1,045, against 502 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet, 10 points higher; middling uplands, 14.45; middling gulf, 15.70; sales, 1,311 bales.

Futures opened steady and closed steady.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, May 5.—The cotton goods markets hold steady, with a very light trade passing in staples. Yarns are quiet. Jobbers say trade is light and very small orders are being placed by retailers when anything is done. Woods are easier, with a better movement reported.

I will remember to take Co-Operative B. & L. stock today. Wright's office, 124 Princess street. **

TRADING IN STOCKS LIMITED

Market Was Hesitating With Several Diverse Movements—Buyers Not Inclined to Follow Advance—Features.

New York, May 5.—Trading in stocks assumed no well-defined trend today and the market was hesitating with several diverse movements. There was an absence of the sustaining selling pressure which upset prices yesterday and the short interest seemed to be more concerned about covering than attempting any extension of their operations.

The result was a keen demand at a lower level established yesterday and at the opening stocks were quickly forced up to a point which showed a substantial recovery. Buyers were not inclined to follow the market on the advance, however, and prices accordingly fluctuated within a comparatively narrow range. Changes on the day as a rule were unimportant.

Reports of industrial conditions, which on the whole were more hopeful, seemed to excite only passing attention. The same was true of the situation in Mexico, in spite of the fact that large American interests are concerned and that advices received today pointed to a critical stage in the affairs of the republic.

Although trading in bonds fell back from yesterday's large figures, the market was still active and prices of some issues made further advances.

Amalgamated Copper was the strong feature of the late part of the session. A factor contributory to the strength of this issue was the statement, made on the authority of a representative of the Guggenheim interests, that the demand for copper abroad, especially in Germany, was excellent. Reports of the steel trade, while not decisive in nature, indicated that some improvement had taken place within the last week. Bank exchanges this week again made an unsatisfactory comparison, the total of the leading cities of the country showing a loss of more than 12 per cent. from the corresponding week of 1910.

The bond market was firm. Total sales, par value, $4,348,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day were 327,000 shares.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Outlook for Wheat Crop Causes Better Business—Features.

New York, May 5.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

The increasingly bright outlook for the wheat crop is responsible for a somewhat better feeling in business as to the future. But the actual volume of trade, while necessarily large, is nevertheless slow, halting and without enthusiasm. Taken in the aggregate, and especially in such basic trades as iron and steel and dry goods, consumption is much below producing capacity, and even concessions in prices fail to produce activity. The export trade is much more vigorous than the domestic, because manufacturers no longer finding the home market for their goods sufficient, are diligently seeking outlets abroad, and this is a process which is sure to be eventually beneficial to business as a whole.

General dullness prevails in the pig iron markets. Railroad buying continues spasmodic. Curtailment is still the order in cotton goods, while woolens are necessarily affected by tariff agitation. The shoe trade is fair, but not up to high water mark.

REVIEW OF COTTON FOR WEEK

Larger Crop Movement and Better Weather Causes Staple to Decline—Indications Point to Big Crop—Features.

New York, May 5.—Cotton has latterly declined, owing to better weather at the South, a larger crop movement, some weakness in prices, dullness of trade in cotton goods on this side of the water and some liquidation. This liquidation was apparently traceable in part to leading bulls, who were seemingly not averse to a temporary reaction, warmer and dryer weather of late in the Southwest, and elsewhere, and a more favorable weekly government than expected caused selling of the new crop months especially of October.

The believers in lower prices insist that all indications point to a big crop and that ultimately prices must fall to a point which will make present quotations seem high.

Some think, too, that anti-option agitations is merely picking a stick for the South's back. They argue that enactment of such legislation would in other words be tantamount to wounding the South in the house of its friends, through a disorganization and demoralization of the trade, and, as they think, an inevitable decline in prices, if the South should find itself obliged to sell its cotton to one customer, the spinner, instead of having two to sell to, namely the spinner and the speculator. Meantime, the curtailment of production goes on. Spinners buy spot cotton sparingly. The new crop months under the shadow of what is expected to be a big crop, are at a sharp discount. Yet Manchester is doing a great business, its mills are prosperous, India is ordering freely and in Liverpool the spot sales make a very cheerful exhibit. Spinners supplies of raw cotton in the country are said to be very small, stocks of goods at the big cities are believed to be comparatively light, the New York stock is steadily decreasing, and is much smaller than a year ago, and the powerful "bull" operators, who retain such a bull-dog grip on the old crop months, received some days ago fully 40,000 bales on May contracts, and seem disposed to accept delivery on any amount that may be tendered.

The idea among many is that it is dangerous to sell the old crop months short, even if they consider it a delicate matter on the other hand to buy them, not knowing whether the big bulls intend to liquidate in the near future, or not. The eight-cent rise in May wheat of late is by bulls considered an object lesson for their opponents. However that may be, the short interest is considered very large in the new crop months. Very little cotton is coming to New York, owing to the relatively high prices prevailing at the South. Today some Wall Street interests were driven to cover in July, by Wall Street bulls. The belief is that the bulls have an unshakable grip on May and July. Prices rallied today, partly owing to big spinners' takings.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, May 5.—Rains over the dry belt Northwest helped to turn wheat prices downward today. The close was irregular, varying from ⅝ under last night to ⅞ above. Corn finished ⅜c. up to ¼@¼c. off; oats, without change, and hog products, 7½ lower to 5 points advance.

termined because it is sober and just, is necessary for the maintenance of our institutions and the rectification of our life. In both the great national parties there are men who feel this ardor of progress and of reform, and in both parties there are men who hold back, who struggle to restrain change, who do not understand it or who have reason to fear it. Undoubtedly the present moment offers a greater and larger opportunity to the Democratic party than to the Republican party, but this is not because there are not men in the Republican party who have devoted their whole intelligence and energy to necessary reform, but because the Democratic party as a whole is freer to move and to act than the Republican is and is held back by a smaller and weaker body of representatives of the things that are and have been.

"We generally sum up what we mean by the reactionary forces by speaking of them as embodied in the interests. By that we do not mean the legitimate but the illegitimate interests, those which have not adjusted themselves to the public interest, those which are clinging to their vested rights as a bulwark against the adjustment which is absolutely necessary if they are to be servants and not masters of the public. The chief political fact of the day is that the Republican party is more closely allied with these interests than the Democratic party. This circumstance constitutes the opportunity of the Democrats. They are free to act and to move in the right direction if they will but accept the responsibility and the leadership. The Democratic party is more in sympathy with the new tendencies than the Republican. Its free forces are the forces of progress and of popular reform.

Breakaway from Past.

"Both parties are of necessity breaking away from the past, whether they will or no, because our life has broken away from the past. The life of America is not the life it was twenty years ago. It is not the life it was ten years ago. We have changed our economic conditions from top to bottom, and with our economic conditions has changed also the organization of our life. The old party formulas do not fit the present problems. The old cries of the stump sound as if they belonged to the past age which men have almost forgotten. The things which used to be put into the party platforms of ten years ago would sound antiquated now. You will note, moreover, that the political audiences which nowadays gather together are not partisan audiences. They are made up of all elements and come together, not to hear parties denounced or praised, but to hear the interests of the nation discussed in new terms—the terms of the present moment.

"We have so complicated our machinery of government, we have made it so difficult, so full of ambushes and hiding places, so indirect, that instead of having true representative government we have a great inextricable jungle of organization intervening between the people and the processes of their government, so that by stages, without intending it, without being aware of it, we have lost the purity and directness of representative government. What we must devote ourselves to now is not to upsetting our institutions, but to restoring them.

Should Avoid Excitement.

"Undoubtedly we should avoid excitement and should silence the demagogue. The man with power, but without conscience, could, with an eloquent tongue, if he cared for nothing but his own power, put this whole country into a flame, because the whole country believes that something is wrong and is eager to follow those who profess to be able to lead it away from its difficulties. But it is all the more necessary that we should be careful who are our guides. The processes we are engaged in are fundamentally consevative processes. If your tree is diseased it is no revolution to restore to it the purity of its sap, to renew the soil that sustains it, to re-establish the conditions of its health. That is a process of life, of renewal, of redemption.

"There is no ground for alarm, therefore. We are bent upon a perfectly definite programme, which is one of health and renewal.

"Let us ask ourselves very frankly what it is that needs to be corrected. To sum it all up in one sentence, it is the control of politics and of our life by reat combinations of wealth. Men sometimes talk as if it were wealth we were afraid of, as if we were jealous of the accummulation of great fortunes. Nothing of the kind is true. America has not the slightest jealousy of the legitimate accummulation of wealth. Everybody knows that there are hundreds and thousands of men of large means and large economic power who have come by it all perfectly legitimately not only, but in a way that deserves the thanks and admiration of the communities they have served and developed. But everybody knows also that some of the men who control the wealth and have built up the industry of the country seek to control politics and also to dominate the life of common men in a way in which no man should be permitted to dominate.

"In the first place, there is the notorious operation of the bipartisan political machine; I mean the machine which does not represent party principle of any kind, but which is willing to enter into any combination, with whatever group of persons or of politicians, to control the offices of localities and of States and of the nation itself in order to maintain the power of those who direct it. This machine is supplied with its funds by the men who use it in order to protect themselves against legislation which they do not desire and in order to obtain the legislation which is necessary for the prosecution of their purposes.

"The methods of our legislatures make the operation of such machines easy and convenient, for very little of our legislation is formed and effected by open debate upon the floor. Most all of it is framed in lawyers' offices discussed in committee rooms, passed without debate. Bills that the machine and its backers do not desire are smothered in committee; measures which they do desire are brought out and hurried through their passage. It happens again and again that great groups of such bills are rushed through in the hurried hours that mark the close of the legislative sessions, when every one is withheld from vigilance by fatigue and when it is possible to do secret things.

When we stand in the presence of these things and see how complete and sinister their operation has been we cry out with no little truth that we no longer have representative government.

Initiative and Referendum.

"Among the remedies proposed in recent years have been the initiative and referendum in the field of legislation and the recall in the field of administration. These measures are supposed to be characteristic of the most radical programmes, and they are supposed to be meant to change the very character of our government. They have no such purpose. Their intention is to restore, not to destroy, representative government."

ALASKANS MAKE THREATS.

Will Not Permit Importations of Canadian Coal—Disorder.

Cordova, Alaska, May 5.—There was no further disorder today over the importation of Canadian coal and none is expected until the arrival of the steamer Edith, which sailed recently from Nanaimo with 2,000 tons of Canadian coal for the Alaska Steamship Company.

Threats were made today that the Edith would not be permitted to discharge her cargo. As all Canadian coal in port is under control of the United States customs officers until it is landed and the duty paid, the deputy collector of customs for Cordova today made a demand on United States Commissioner O. A. Tucker for protection for the Edith. He was assured that an ample force of deputy marshals would be on hand to protect the property.

Mayor Lathrop sent the following message to Acting Governor Distanat Juneau:

"Serious disturbance account of Canadian coal on dock yesterday. Believe can handle situation at present. Threats freely made to destroy cargo of Edith now en route. Government must stand ready to protect."

United States Deputy Marshal Brightwell arrived from Orcata last night and swore in deputies, who are now standing guard on the wharf of the Alaska Steamship Company.

Many messages have been received from all parts of Alaska approving the action of the mob.

Washington, May 5.—On receipt of the news of the rioting at Cordova, Secretary of the Interior Fisher today telegraphed to Governor Clark, of Alaska, who is now at Chaplin, Conn., in part as follows:

"Press reports indicate lawless destruction British Columbia coal at Cordova by citizens claiming to act in resentment of delay in disposition here of Alaska coal matters. Lawlessness must be absolutely suppressed and punished, and you will take prompt and vigorous action to this end."

THE HOE LIBRARY SALE.

Came to End of First Quarter With Nearly Million Realized.

New York, May 5.—The Hoe library sale, at which single treasures of written and printed art have sold for a fortune, came to the end of its first quarter with nearly a million dollars realized. Three thousand five hundred books and manuscripts were disposed of and the grand total for the ten days reached $997,363.50. The record breaking price of all bookdom—$50,000—was brought by the Guttenberg Bible, sold to Henry E. Huntington, of Los Angeles.

Today's sale developed the highest price ever paid for a bit of Americana when G. D. Smith, who has been buying for Mr. Huntington, paid $10,000 for a book by John Winthrop, printed at Boston in 1645. It is the "declaration of former passages and proceedings betwixt the English and the Narrowgansetts," and it is the first book on an historical subject printed in America. Another interesting sale was $2,350, which Walter M. Hill, of Chicago, paid for a ten-volume edition of "Walton's Complete Angler."

Three-fourths of the great Hoe collection still remained to be disposed of in a series of sales to be held in November, January and March, and buyers predict that a total of $3,000,000 will be realized.

CARTER R. BISHOP ACQUITTED.

Cashier of Failed Petersburg Bank—More Indictments.

Petersburg, Va., May 5.—Judge Mullen holding, in passing on inadmissibility of testimony by Clerk R. T. Wilson, of the State Corporation Commission, that the commonwealth had not established the fact of false entry, Commonwealth's Attorney Mann today requested the jury to return a verdict acquitting Carter R. Bishop, cashier of the old Appomattox Trust Company, who had been tried three days for alleged larceny of $20,685, through false entries in the bank's discount books in October.

The verdict of acquittal was given as requested. Argument on which Judge Mullen ruled was that of counsel for the defense, objecting to the introduction of the State Corporation Commission clerk on the ground that the fact of false entry had not been proven. The commonwealth sought to show by Mr. Wilson's testimony that false entry was made by Cashier Bishop to conceal the condition of the bank before making a report to the commission.

subject of Torreon, Saltillo and Durango, which are reported to have been captured by the rebels.

Still Hoping for Peace.

Washington, May 5.—While many reports from Mexico that reach the White House are far from encouraging President Taft and his cabinet are still hoping for peace. The cabinet discussed the Mexican situation at length today and it was determined that this government shall "stand pat" for the present. No more troops are to be ordered to Texas and for a time at least no war vessels are to be sent to Mexican waters.

Further demonstrations by this government along the Texas frontier or movements in Mexican waters are contingent upon the outcome of the negotiations between the Diaz government and the revolutionists. Until the President is assured that there can be no peace in Mexico he is not likely to act.

Await Reply From Diaz.

El Paso, Texas, May 15.—If President Diaz does not announce by tomorrow noon his intention of resigning, an attack on Juarez as well as a conclusion of the armistice for the Chihuahua district is imminent.

This was the opinion of insurrecto leaders tonight after a 24-hour wait for the answer of President Diaz to the suggestion made yesterday by Francisco I. Madero, Jr., through his peace commissioners to Judge Carabajal, the Federal envoy.

Gen. Madero tonight was sounded by one of the Federal go-betweens to ascertain whether he would consent to an extension of the armistice which expires tomorrow. He replied that he would answer the question tomorrow morning. He said if an extension were asked by the Federal government he would demand specific reasons before granting it.

Judge Carabajal and other peace commissioners remained in their hotel all day. Dr. Vasquez Gomez, head of the rebel commission, late tonight said that he was still awaiting word from Judge Carabajal as to yesterday's proposition and that no more peace conferences would be held till a reply was received.

Judge Carabajal himself thrust a perplexing note into the day's events by declaring that he had not officially transmitted the proposition of the rebel commissioners. He told the newspaper men that he had no authority to receive any propositions concerning the Diaz resignation, his instructions covering only specific points concerning political reforms. When told of this, Gen. Madero expressed the opinion that perhaps Judge Carabajal was not willing to acknowledge the submission of the Diaz question to the government. Some of the Federal go-betweens admitted that it was their impression the government received the Madero proposition last night, but could not state in what form it had been sent.

All the insurrecto chiefs believe that the government now is fully cognizant of their demands, and that the delay in the receipt of an answer is due to confusion in official circles in Mexico City. Some of them scent friction in the cabinet of the President.

Gen. Madero feels that he has played his trump card. He showed plainly dtoay the effect of the nervous strain of the last few days.

Anarchy In Mexico.

General Francisco I. Madero, the rebel chief, tonight received a message from a New York newspaper informing him that in the United States it was believed anarchy prevailed in Mexico and that the situation was very grave.

In reply Madero denied that anarchy existed, asserting, however, that the disturbed condition of the country was due to the fact that organized revolution was triumphing.

He reiterrated his views as expressed in his ultimatum to Diaz. He added that, if President Diaz should announce his intention of resigning it would be possible to restore peace in Mexico within eight days, the time necessary to communicate with all the rebel chiefs.

THIRTEEN UNDER ARREST.

Wire Tappers Failed to Fleece New Jersey Contractor.

New York, May 5.—Charles W. McDonald, a well-to-do contractor of Camden, N. J., not only nipped what he regards as a plot to fleece him out of $21,000 by "wireless wire tapping," but caused 13 new found friends to be lodged in jail here tonight charged with attempted grand larceny.

Detectives made the arrests in a raid on a house in the tenderloin where they confiscated a number of telegraph and telephone instruments whose wires, they say, led only as far as the walls, and seized alleged worthless checks aggregating $159,000 and $245 in currency wrapped about 15 bundles and giving the appearance of a large amount. McDonald notified the police on Wednesday that he was to keep an appointment which McCormick, one of the men under arrest, who had met him, he said, and represented himself as the manager of a telegraph company and able to get first returns of the races. McDonald drew money from the bank and led McCormick to believe, at the detectives suggestion that it was $21,000 to be placed in the raided house "for making a clean-up of $200,000."

McCormick, according to the police, is William Crane, well known to them, and among the 12 other men who are posing in the alleged fake pool room are several characters whom the police have down in the rogue gallery as wire tappers.

Lexington, Va., May 5.—After reposing 112 years in historic St. John's church yard in Richmond, the body of Rev. William M. Graham was today re-interred in the campus of Washington & Lee University. Many distinguished alumni of the institution over which Mr. Graham presided as first president for more than 20 years witnessed today's ceremony. William A. Anderson, a trustee of the University, spoke on the life of Mr. Graham. President Denny presided and paid tribute.

DRASTIC LIQUOR MEASURE.

Passed Florida Senate Yesterday—Aimed at Saloons.

Tallahassee, Fla., May 5.—Following the defeat of a constitutional amendment for State-wide prohibition at a recent election, the State Senate today passed a drastic bill regulating the saloons of the State by a vote of 17 to 5. The bill prohibits the sale of liquor to habitual drunkards, requires saloons to close at o'clock and not to open until 7 o'clock the following morning, abolishes all screens and forbids music or games in saloons. It further provides that not more than one-fourth of a pint of any intoxicant shall be sold to a customer, this is to be in a sealed package. It is believed that the measure will become a law.

ICE! ICE!! ICE!!!
-:-YES-:-
ICE! ICE!! and ICE!!!

One might almost be led to believe that this community had never seen Pure Ice until this good year 1911.

A great man once said "there is nothing new under the sun" and this is so to a great extent when it comes to the manufacture of ice.

Now, as a matter of fact, The Independent Ice Company has been for ten years and is still making as pure, as clean, as healthful to use ice as can be found in all North Carolina. We defy anyone to prove to the contrary. Our prices are as low as the lowest. We give full guaranteed weight. Our service is the best Wilmington ever had. We have a polite, accommodating corps of officials who will thank any one to report any act of neglect or discourtesy on the part of our wagon drivers or helpers.

TURPOILINE
CHEAPER THAN TURPENTINE

It is an odorless mineral product, which possesses great solvent power for paints and varnishes, has the requisite high flash for working and the clean evaporation which leaves the coating in perfect condition.

TURPOILINE makes a free flowing varnish, free from bloom. It flat colors better than turpentine.

TURPOILINE is thorough uniform; you can be assured of receiving the same product all the time.

TURPOILINE costs less and works well.

TURPOLINE is the most satisfactory product on the market for the paint and varnish man.
